From the Headmaster's Diary:

A gray, rain soaked December Day.

Across the hall from my Study comes the rise and fall of voices engaged in lively debate. From beyond the infirmary the sound of a lone clarinet drifts through my open window. Mr. Evans, barely down from the high of Scapino, comes by to block out times for the Junior Plays in April. The Carol Service is two weeks away and already we are jockeying for Choir Trip dates in May in an attempt to avoid conflict with other events and excursions. Mr. Turner drops by to ask about progress in finding an Inspecting Officer for the Cadet Inspection, and to check that all is well for the Cadet Mess Dinner tomorrow (December 4) night, which of course is the same night as the Annual Tea Dance, on which the Activities Committee has worked so hard. Mr. Peacock comes in to say that the major play for next term is The Crucible, which should be an exciting challenge. And what night is the best for Christmas Dinner? We must try to avoid, as far as possible, House Parties, Choir Practice, Cadets, and late Creases.

Thinking of Creases, Senior Hockey today plays the opening game in the Bishop's University - Champlain Tournament which will carry on into tomorrow. How to cover those games, get out to Galt for some of the Bantam Basketball, then back to School for Senior and Junior Basketball, then over to our rink for the Bantam and Junior Hockey games, then pick up some of the Volleyball game. Don't forget Chapel on Sunday evening and really do get ready for classes on Monday. But don't forget too that exams begin Thursday and they have to be prepared as well. But College Boards are tomorrow morning! And this piece is well overdue for the Yearbook deadline! I think I'll go for a walk.

The point of the foregoing, of course, is that much of it could be from the diary of almost anyone in the school. Yes, the pace is hectic; yes we do pack a lot into our twenty five hour day, and yes we do, many times, feel sorely tempted to walk away from it all. But the incredible thing is not so much the quantity, in terms of how much we do, but rather the quality of what happens. Our academics, our teams, our theatre and music, our art, our dedication to a job begun with enthusiasm and completed with style and precision do indeed make us a special place. And we are a special place because we believe in giving of our time, our talents and our energies into producing our best. And the best of BCS is very, very good indeed.

Wakey Wakey

Another 25 Hour Day

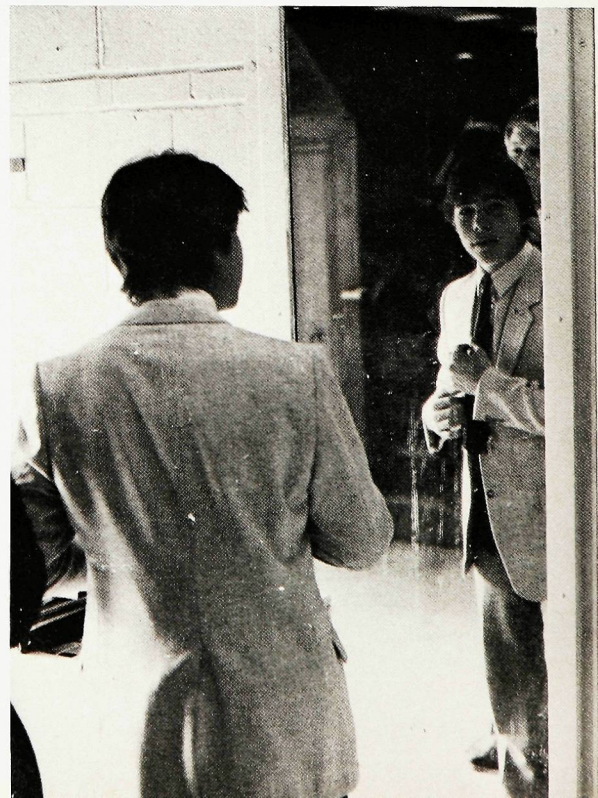

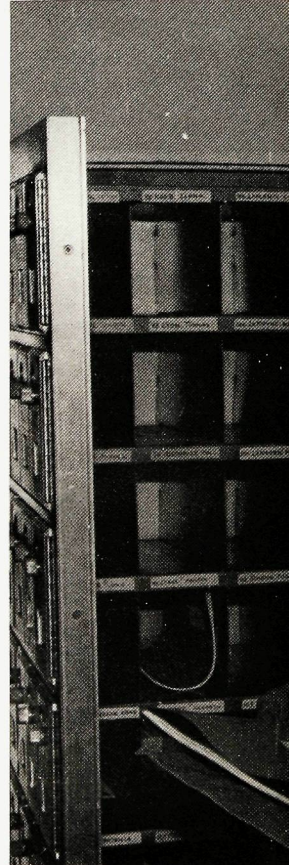

On a cold September morning, while walking to school, I spotted a figure at the side of the road, still, almost frozen, his last wish he whispered in my ear, "On my tombstone have written, I died running a LAP!"

Oh you stupid alarm, shut-up! I can't believe it's morning already! It seems as if I just went to bed a few minutes ago. Oh gross, it's Monday! I wish I could just stop time and go to sleep for a few more hours. I can probably stay in this nice, cozy, warm bed for another fifteen minutes. Oh my gosh, I have my English speech to give today on child abuse. I'm so nervous! I'd better not get up there and forget what to say. Stop thinking about it, you're running out of your lovely, relaxing fifteen minutes. Let me see ... oh yes we're going up North this weekend. I can't wait! Oh gee, fifteen minutes are almost up. Okay I have to get out of bed and jump into the shower by the count of three ... here it goes!

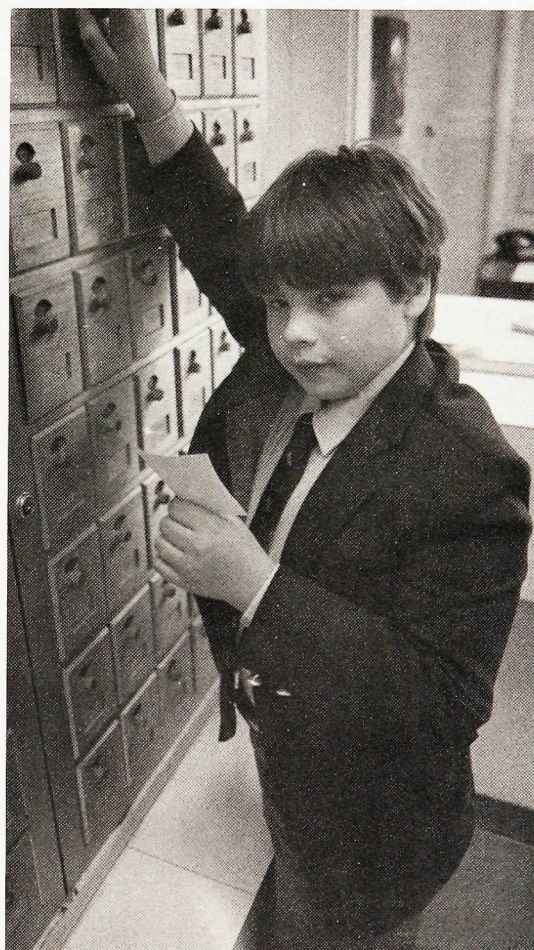

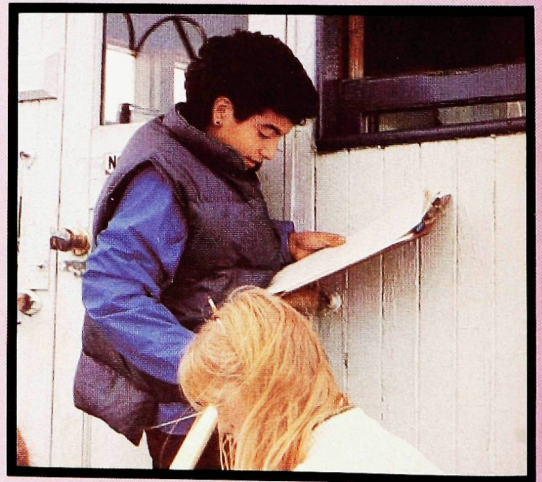

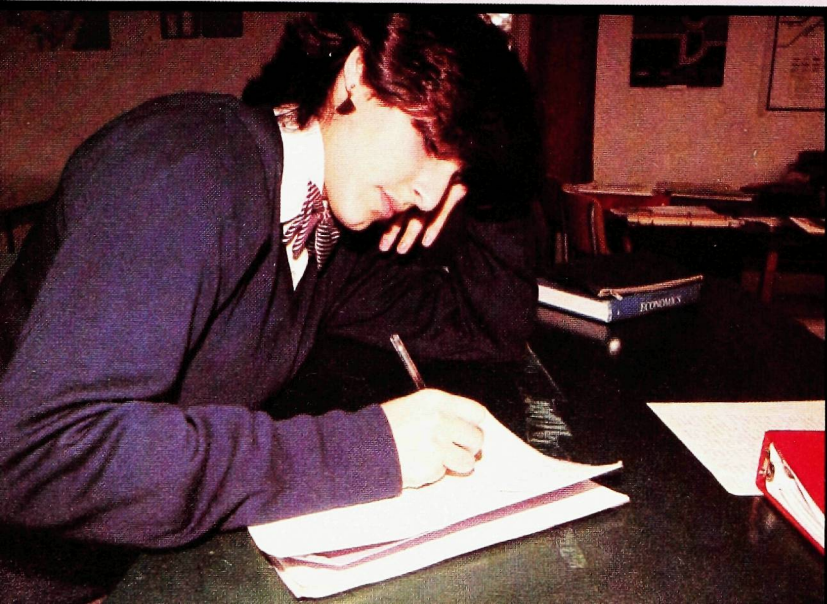

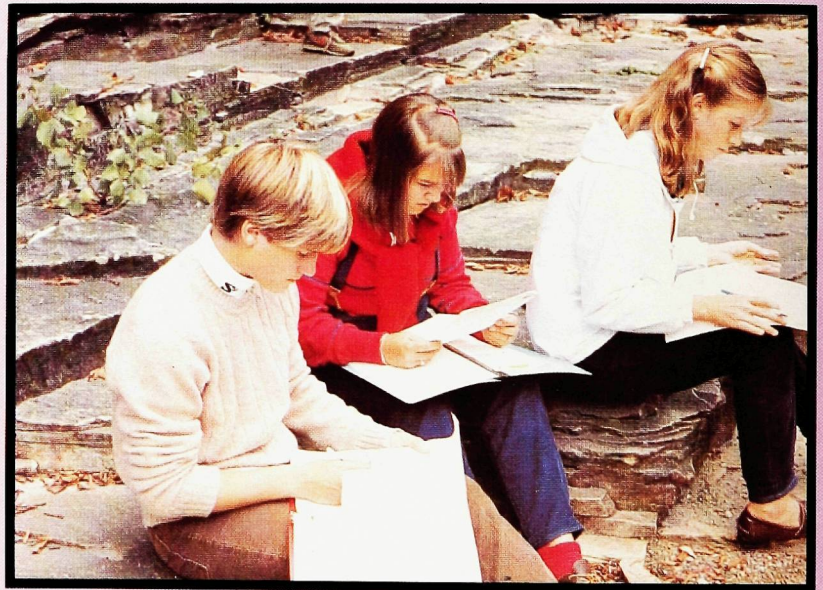

Everyday at 10:25 crowds of two or three people dash for the room which is their only link to the outside world. Pushing and shoving are all part of the atmosphere. Screams of delight, whails of depression signify if 'contact' has been made.

Between the Bells

More Than Just Bricks in the Wall

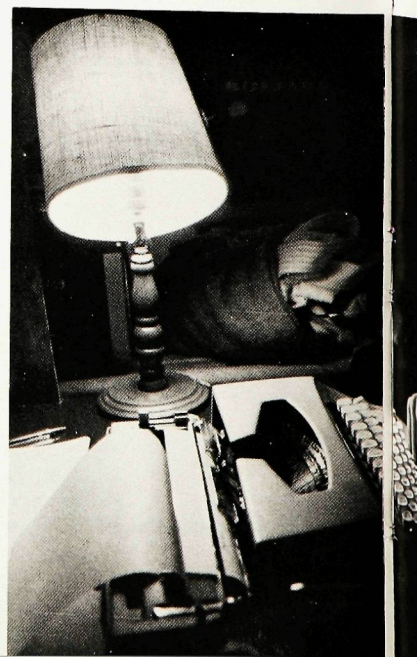

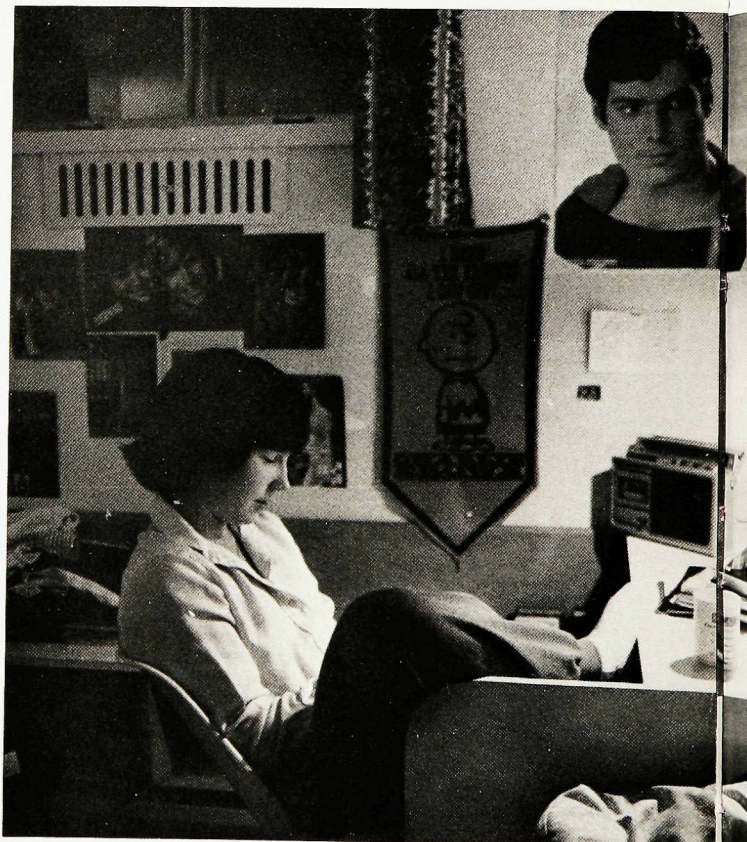

It's almost 2:40pm, thank God! School sometimes drags along, but not to worry, February break is near. I don't know why I look forward to the breaks so much, I never do anything exciting. I really shouldn't think of how long until the breaks because the time goes by much slower.

As soon as this day is over there will be only one more day until the weekend. I wonder what I will do during this weekend. I'll probably have an amazing time and then I'll have to go to cadets on Monday - that will ruin the whole weekend.

Gosh! This class is going by so slow, I wish the time would speed up; be patient! Crease is at 4:15, too bad it isn't any earlier, if it was I wouldn't have to rush to take my shower just so I could get to dinner on time.

Remember, patience is a virtue and time is limited, use what you've got to it's fullest!

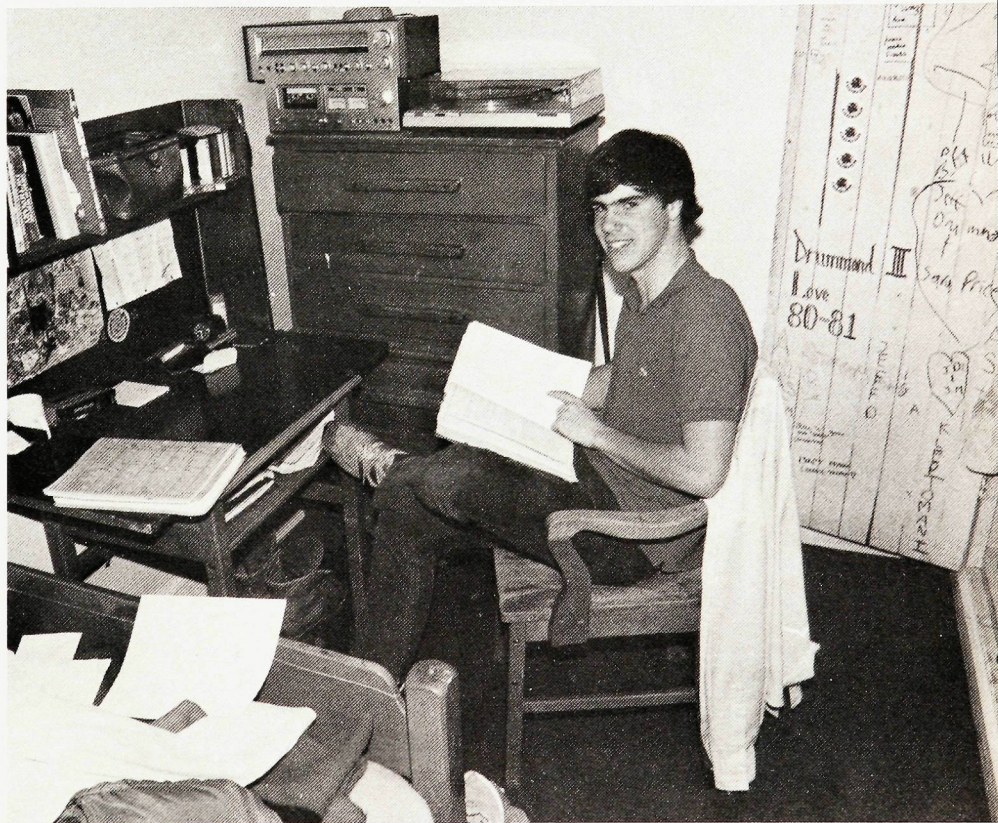

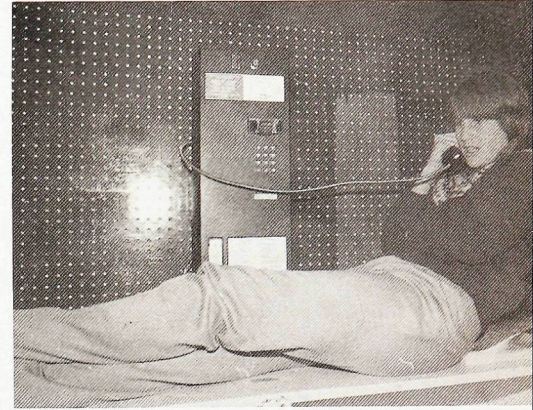

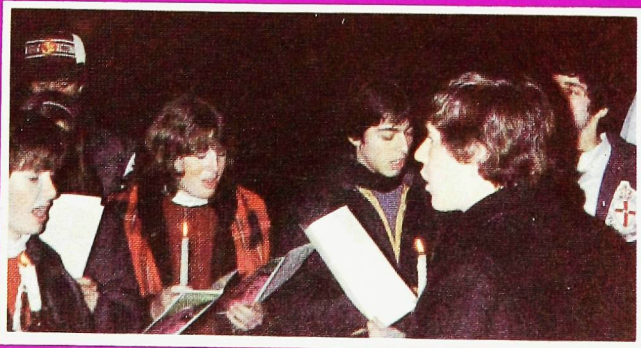

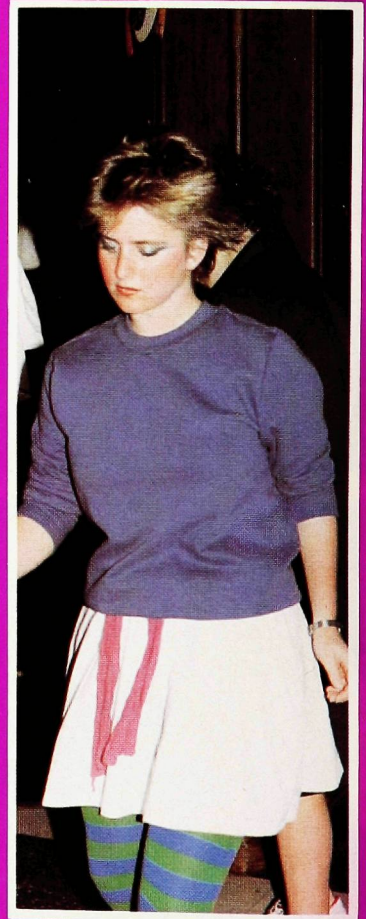

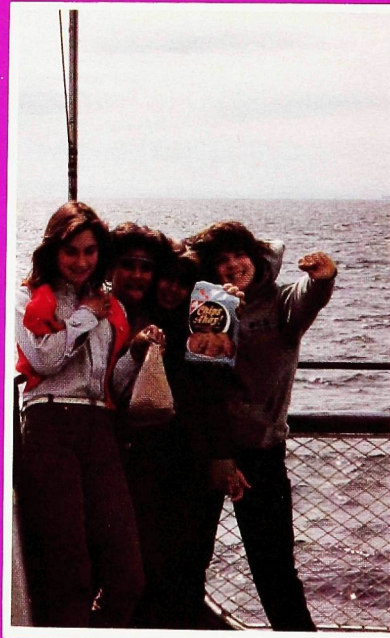

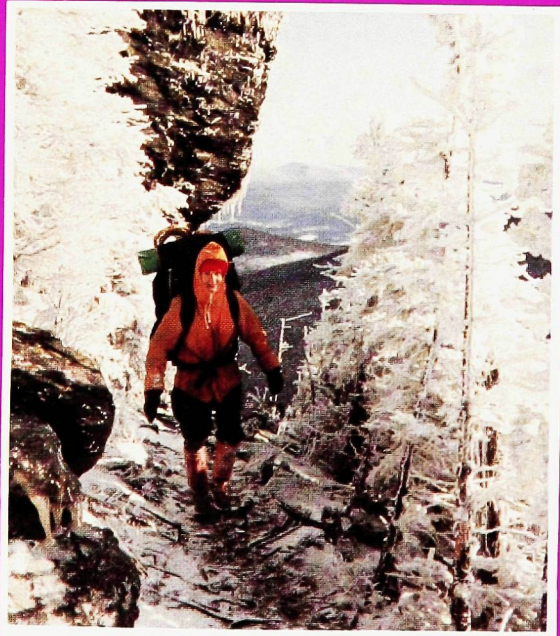

Prep

A time to lie back and think about our summer.
A time to put on the earphones and Listen to music and especially -
A time to pig out on your roomie's fudge and cookies.
But if someone were to ask, "What's Prep?" You answer,
"Oh that's a time reserved for work!"

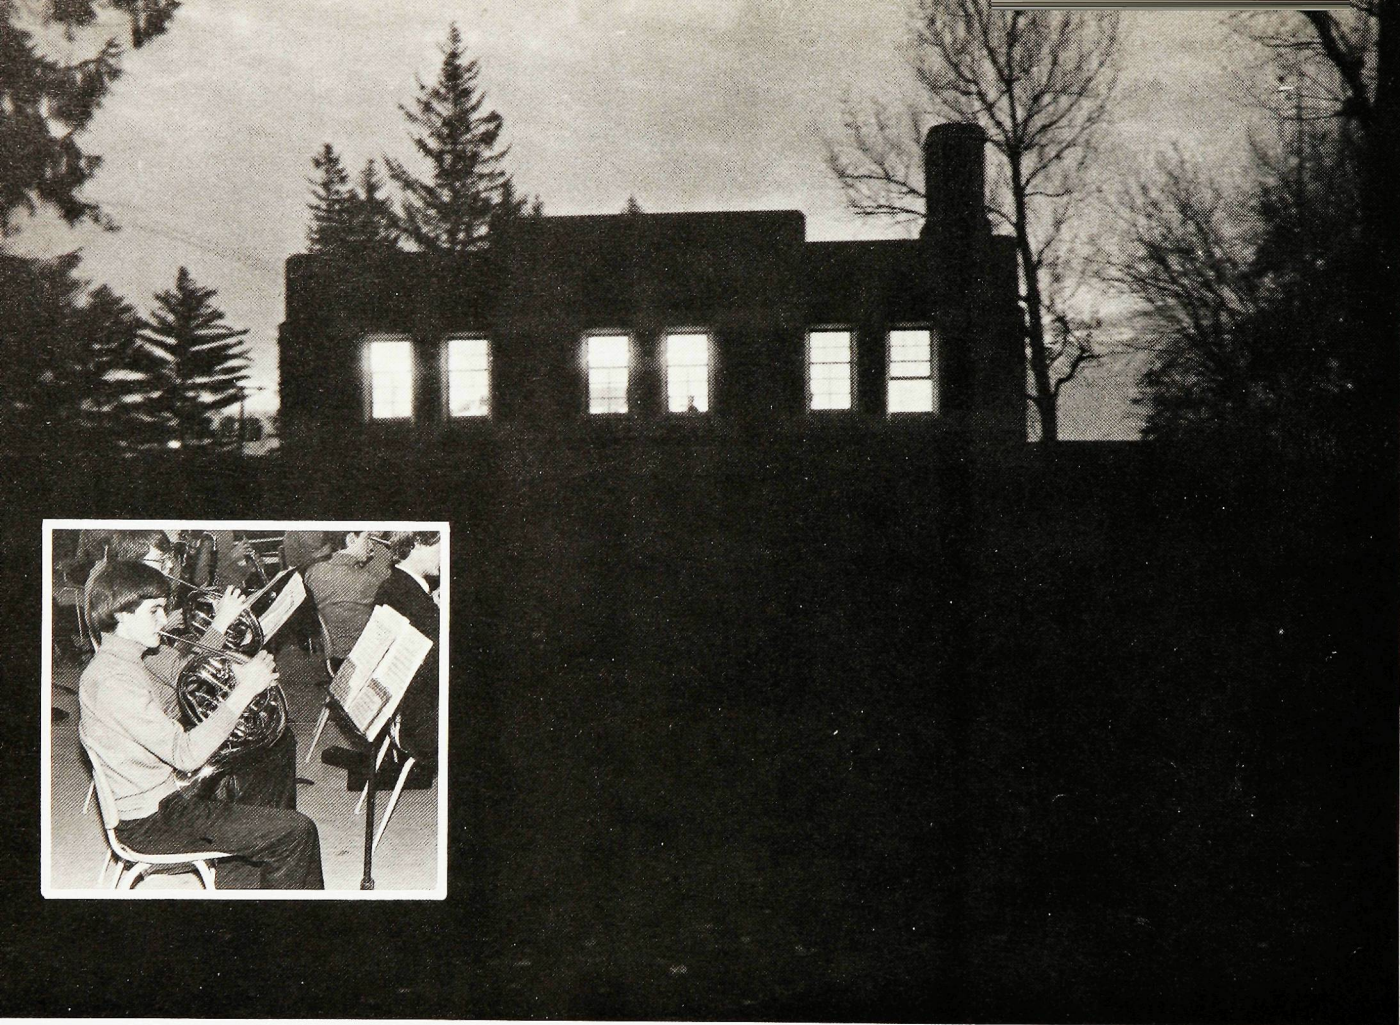

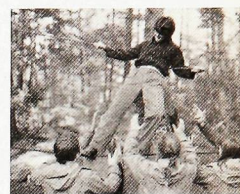

Having Fun

Things can get busy at B.C.S. That we all know.
But despite all that we do in our day we still find time to have fun, relax, and from time to time to let our hair down.

Every Picture Tells a Story

A story of celebration - whether it be finally scoring that elusive goal, or declaring that "we're number one", or just blowing out all those candles.

A story of long evenings of practice and dedication, or a story of helping hands. Ready to catch you when you're on your way down.

Scapino!

“The play’s the thing!”

It is the primary commitment of all students involved in the Players’ Club. All other activities must be secondary, and attended only when they do not conflict with rehearsals ... with the obvious exception of crease ... and the probable exception of choir ... and the possible exceptions of debating, magazine, newspaper, astronomy, camera club, computer work, social services, and G.T.A.!

Make no mistake, “the play’s the thing!”

By mid-November, after the usual hectic start to the year, the School needed a good laugh, and the Players’ Club provided. The laugh lasted about two hours, with its Italian lesson, its chases into the house, its spaghetti “pig-out”, its water hazard (waves and all), and its enormous energy of the whole cast, led by Christian Boisclair (playing himself in the title rôle).

Yes, by mid-November, the B.C.S. Players’ Club had prepared the most ridiculous of farces - SCAPINO! Squeezing rehearsal time out of the TWENTY-FIVE HOUR DAY was hard. Discovering time to learn lines, build the water-front set, compile and create the costumes, was almost impossible.

As always, extreme efforts were made, the jobs were done, the play was performed, and the audience laughed. It was mindless; it was exhausting; it was fun; it was worth it!

SENIOR STUDENTS

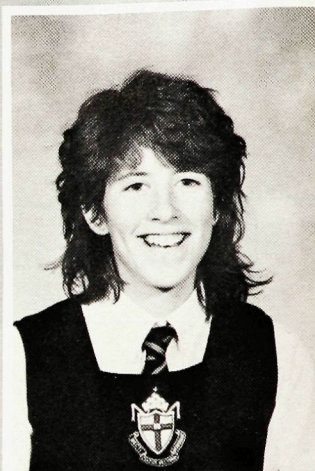

The Senior Students at B.C.S. contribute a lot to the school. Some set up for the dances or control the Dining Hall crowds. Most important of all, they set an example. Most of the older students are very nice and helpful. They comfort you during bad times. They make the first days here easier. The Seniors get preference in line, or are they budding? The Seniors at B.C.S. are doing, on the whole, a very good job of maintaining a well organized school.

Leslie Major ... Form 2

AVRIL BENOIT (Right).

Avril Benoit is not a typical Bishop - No, she's from big, big Ottawa. She did not make the Soccer team because she had Athletes Foot. She didn't make the Activities Committee because she's too dumb. Avril's ambition was to be Honorary Mascot of Smith House. She didn't. Too bad Avril! Sounds like a great year for you!

J.A.K.

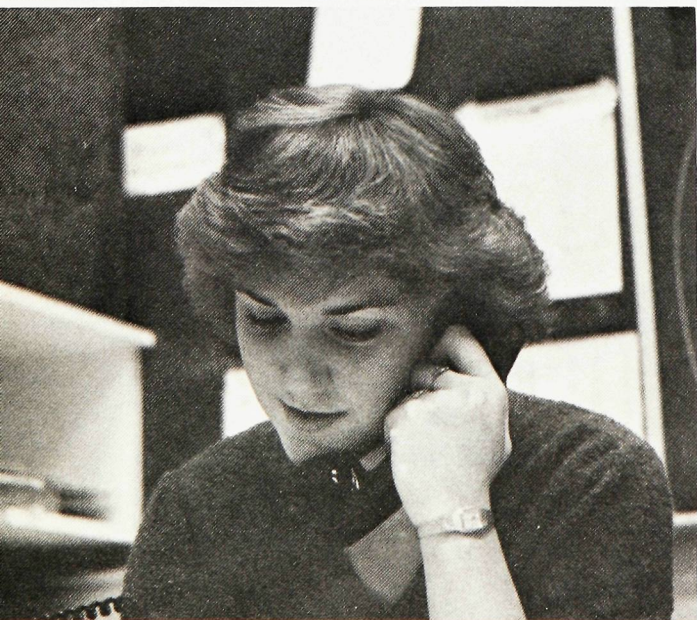

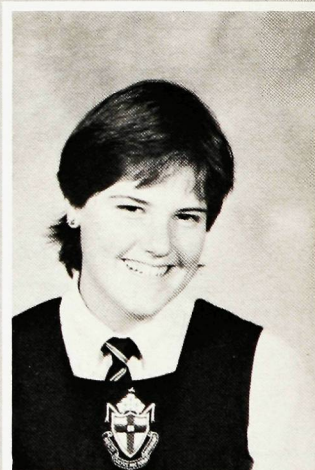

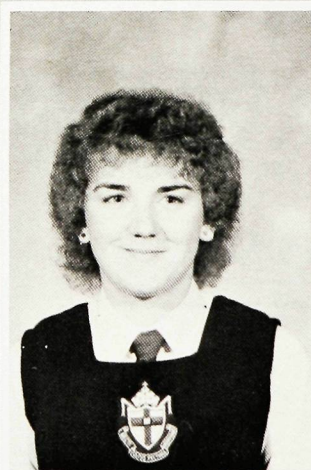

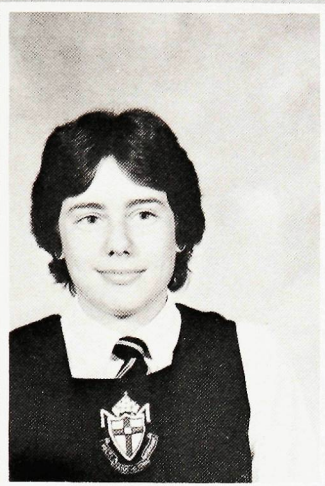

DENYSE BRUNEAU Prefect (Right).

As we look across the ocean, in flies a paratrooper, Sarge Bruneau. Taking after her Dad she proves Norwegian cadets are just as good. She gives all in sports, since both Norway and Germany do have basketballs, but let's not discuss Fieldhockey - the other team's knees explain it! Denyse's organisation (excluding her room) has taken her a long way. She persists on finishing a job once she has started as her many activities show. Most of all, she supplies laughter and help to many ... J.E. Martin

PAM CROSSEN (Far right).

When I needed a shoulder to cry on, Pam was there, a girl who made the bad times fun, who with her smile, made the world shine. Pam's encouragement and enthusiasm for the things she did, will be remembered by everyone long after the days at B.C.S. are gone. Pam was an excellent example of a perfect friend. When Pam was sad, so was I. When Pam was happy, so was I. Now you are leaving, and so am I, but the memories of you and the times we spent together will always stay with me. I hope we will meet again, John.

Life is precious - guard it; Life is a challenge - meet it;
Life is tense - ease it; Life is sweet - taste it;
Life is love - kiss it; Life is promise - keep it;
Life is pleasure - enjoy it; Life is rough - smooth it;
Life is duty - do it; Life is life - live it!

... Me

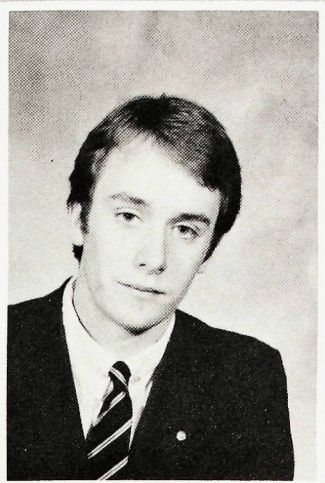

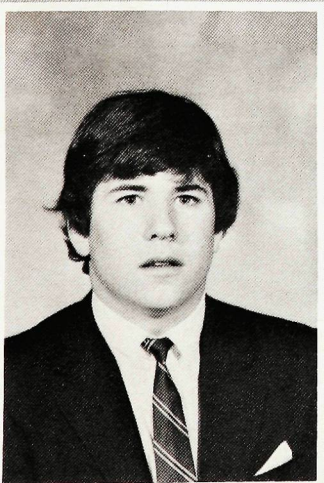

ANDREA FIELDS Prefect (Left).

Faith came in Second Form calling herself Andrea. I'm now going to ruin all her plans by talking about her as Faith. Andrea has always been faithful to herself, true to her word and opinions. Her self-confidence and her faith in the school have always demonstrated themselves in her accomplishments: First Female C.O., Prefect. Loyalty is what's really important about her, loyalty as a friend. Hope all goes well for you wherever you go, and try not to forget the times you've had ... Anne

Remember: God almighty hates a quitter.

JOHN GILMORE (Left).

Now your final year is over and you can look back on four years of the best memories you've ever had. The smiles, laughter, tears. All these would not be if it wasn't for yourself. Your enthusiasm (Creases), your kindness (Friends), your willingness to help (Clubs). From the first time in Math class I've admired you - when my world was crashing down, you were there. I saw you. I became to know you. I love you. You'll succeed, I know you can do it. Good luck next year! Lots of love, Pam

STUART GORDON (Right).

Stue is probably the craziest guy the Zoo has ever seen. His well deserved name "Motorcycle" describes his nice side perfectly! Stue hid his ever changing (Quadraphenic) character well during the day which will never cease to amaze us. Stue is the all-star Jock, in the evening he rampages the house as "Motorcycle" and on the late evenings (after lights out) he is the bubble boy. However amazing the constant Jam Session, Stue did manage to get some work done. Burnt out ... Scheporscheporscheporschep.

KAREN HALIL (Far right).

You can't always judge a person by the way she walks; The Merry Brothers. Have you chosen one yet Karen? Will you ever be able to choose just one? Luv Debs ... Elle etait surement c'elle qui avait les plus belles jambes que j'ai jamais vu de ma vie ... Marco ... A toast to duck laughs, being attacked on the street, earrings and Sangria. Luv Theo ... Hold the fort Karen, I'm coming! Jans. Here's to dreams of the future - may we make it together!

Love Jennifer

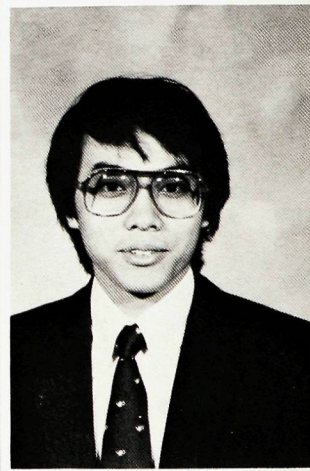

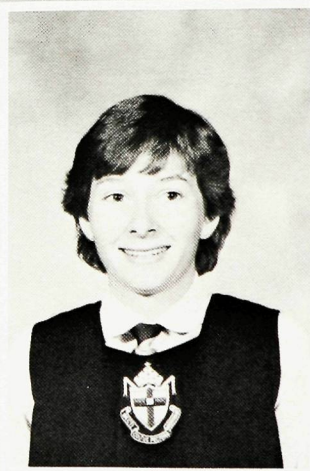

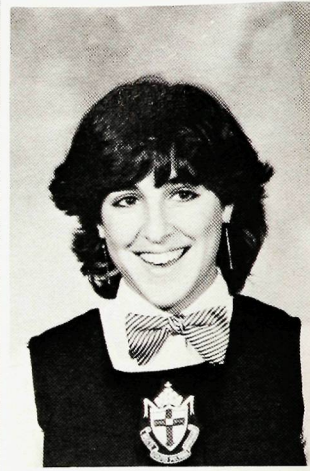

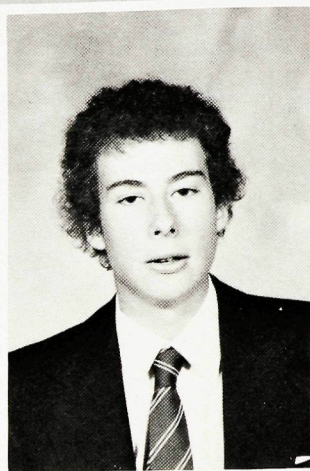

JANE HAWKETTS Prefect (Right).

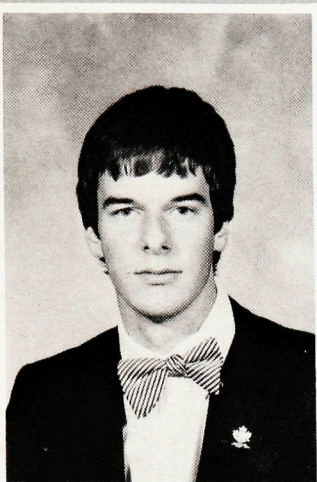

The grand essentials in life are something to do, something to love and something to hope for. It is hard to express the love, loyalty and respect I feel for B.C.S. I am grateful that I can look back on my growing up here with incredibly fond memories. To Mum and Dad go my undying thanks for your wisdom, love and support. The future is an uncertain but exciting thing. When one door is shut, another opens ... Spanish Proverbs

PHILIP HO (Far right).

"Cato ho! you men, you beasts,
That quench the fire of your pernicious rage.
With purple fountains issuing from your veins."

Shakespeare

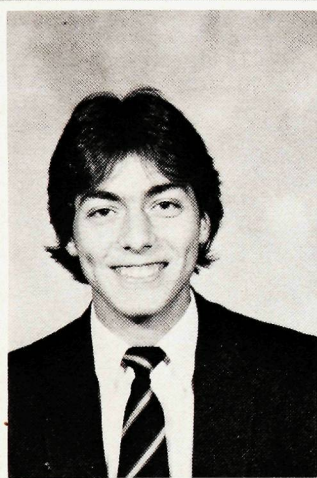

TOM LYON (Far left).

I lived near this school for twelve years. I came here each day on one, two or four wheels. As a New Student I joined the Band as a way of continuing my music and escaping cadets. Though my crease time was not always spent doing sports, I quickly caught on to the school spirit. Hope to see you all at Old Boys in the many years to come! ... Tom Lyon

MARCO MARCHINI (Left).

Marco has many different sides to him. For his excellent performance on the Soccer Field he received the MVP award. The night they showed Halloween 2 he revealed his courageous side, (under his bed!!). Marco is a great asset to B.C.S, with the honorable position of Sergeant of QM and a great athlete who always does his best. Most of all he's the person who's always smiling and willing to help others. Bonne chance mon ami! ... Ed ... He was ranked as having the sexiest legs on the Soccer Field by all the girls!!

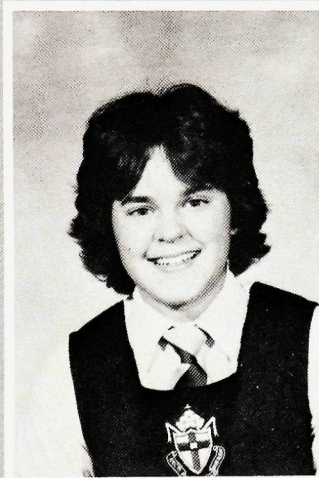

MATTEO MARCHINI

Teo likes to think he's the Italian Stallion. I know better. I can say that he keeps an eye open for the girls though. Guess who likes pinching bums?! Matteo has succeeded in learning other things here at B.C.S. For example; Who couldn't speak a word of English when he came here? You got it, the Whopper himself! Look at him now, he's on his way to "Romeo and Juliet" or is it "Scapino?!" Matteo gets along as well as the next guy, especially when it's Phil. Right Teo? Bonne Chance!!

Bianca Neva

Prefect (Left).

Susan came three years ago, very quietly. She did her work quietly. They gave her an achievement tie not so quietly. She was heard in Glass House, definitely not quiet. Then one day I heard her. It started at a track meet. It went into X-country then to skiing, choir practices, chapel services, insane edited acts. I'm glad I heard you!

LOVE, HEATHER.

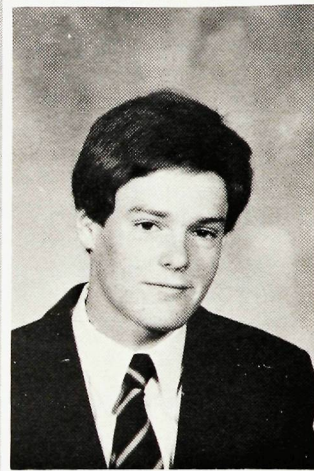

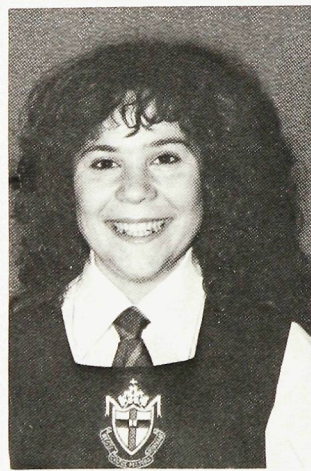

HEATHER MACKINNON Prefect (Right).

Hello, d'hat. Mo, didn't we meet before? Naw I wouldn't cry at the end of the year. Hi! Anyone for spit? It's because we have no work Sir. Salut, I'm going to master French; someday. Forget it, I didn't even take Geog. Maybe I might cry a little bit. I love the spring, and choc. ice-cream. You mean Dr. Pepper. I can't do it now Susan, it's too cold. Yes Andrea, I'm going to cry! BYE

ANDREW MCWHIRTER (Far right).

Well it's Andrew's third, and hopefully, his final year here at B.C.S. All the way from the dunes of ABQAIQ! I guess he's off to university after this, or so he hopes. Lots of fun things to remember this year! Senior Soccer, Sparklers, and who knows what else. Don't forget the flaming bathtub (wang!))!! The heavy metal scene will never be the same. Also we must remember the big bang theory. Anyway, the best of luck, Cheers!

A Fellow Saudi

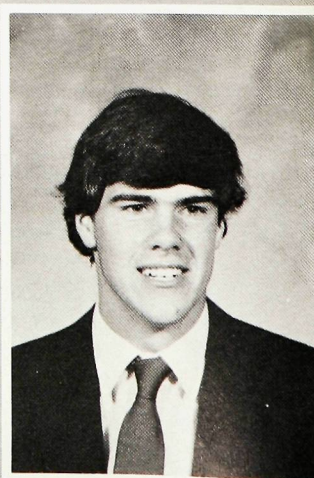

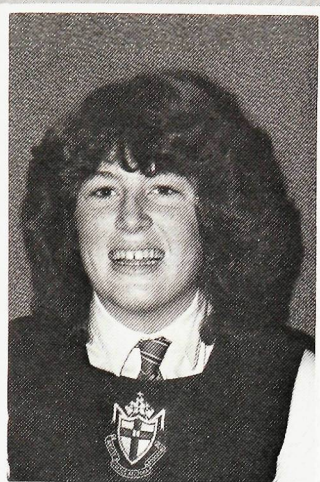

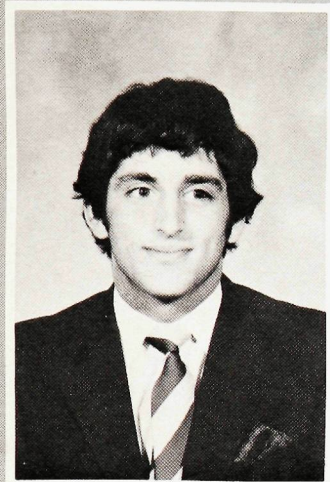

JANET ONDAATJE (Right).

When you say good-bye, always leave them laughing.

GEOFF REFORD (Far right).

Geoff was a cut-loose comrade who was cleverly disguised as a student. Beaming with undefinable charm, it's proven by several previous degenerate efforts at writing this article, Geoff's predicted censorship ditched these trials. Life in the Zoo consisted of many attempts in confining Geoff to his cage with his barbaric roommate Motorcycle. This drove Geoff to several hostile acts of Golf on Sundays. - Intense atmosphere! Seriously, I'd like to say a special thanks to all those people who made this place humorous.

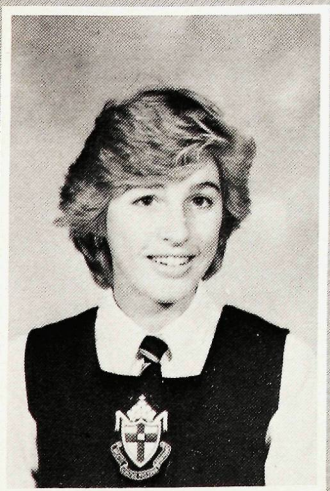

ANDREW SETLAKWE Prefect (Far left).

Set, Quack, Eatlakwe, Hairball alias Andrew Setlakwe has had a distinguished career at B.C.S. The hardships of this 6-year odyssey through B.C.S. payed off when he was crowned a Prefect this year. The 56% on the Romantic Course didn't exactly help Set's quests of a tie. He can either be found up at School House fighting one of the girls, or at Smith House helping to define the Zoo's sophisticated ambience. What next? U. of TH.-M. maybe? Whatever you do, Good Luck! ... John K.

DEBBIE SOLES (Left).

The first time I saw Debbie, I knew she was special. Especially when it came to Physics, Computer, Calculus ... No but really, there's much more to it than that. She caught our attention by her fantastic performance in Field Hockey, and she even won a trophy! Debbie lightens the hallway with her beautiful face. I wish that all the girls in paradise are just like you!!

Love Marco and friends

Down the ancient corridors
And through the gates of time
Run the ghosts of days
That we left behind ...

Dan Fogelberg

A special thanks to all of you who were there over the many (!!!) rough spots and Mom and Dad for their understanding and support.

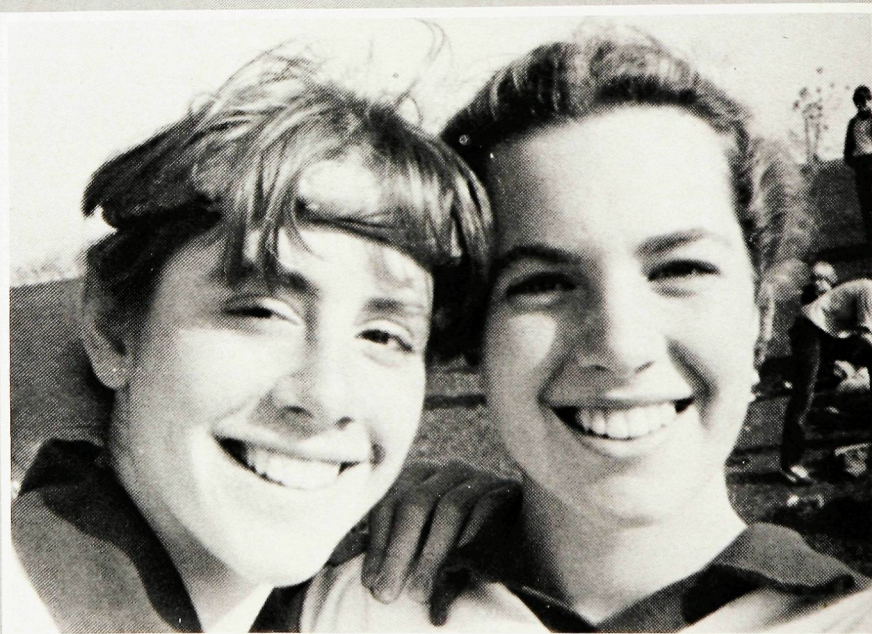

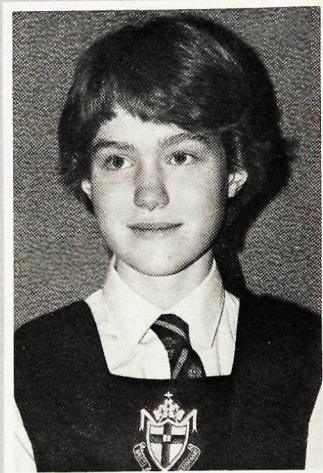

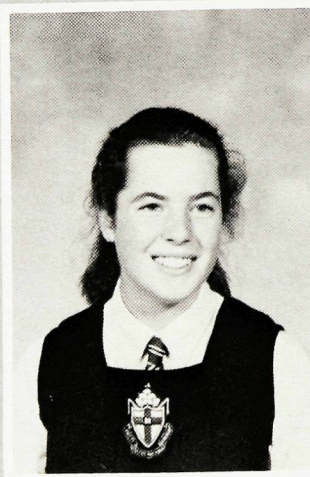

CAITLIN ADAMSON (Right).

Hey, witch-woman! It's been a hell'uv a year! You've changed a lot - from falling asleep, clinging to the doorknob in N.S.L, to falling head-over-heels over all the guys! Perhaps you're not a Biological genius, but maybe you'll graduate with honors in BLUSHING!! Prep hours were a TERRIBLY studious time for us, weren't they, Roomie? What is this strong magnetic force that lures you towards all the guys! Someday, when you're weak - just wait - I'll beat you up! Remember, the orange M + M's are mine!! Love Nancy

JAQUIE ANGUS (Far right).

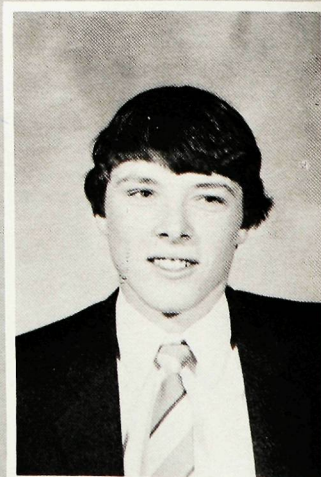

Even though we had our differences; Even if we fought nonstop, things are better now, and that's the truth. It was fun for that while: the shouting and screaming, and even the smile. Thanks Jaquie.

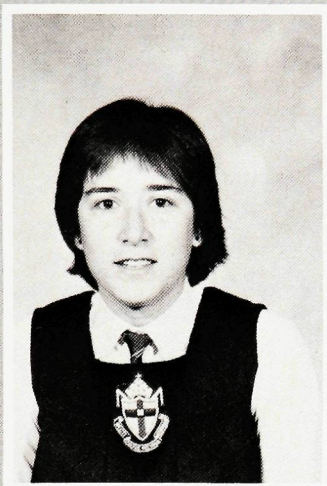

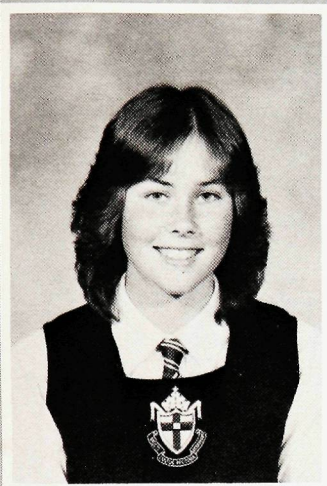

P.S. Keep your fingers far from all doors because who knows when they might close! ... Erin

NICK AYRE (Right).

Nick, the man from the English part of Quebec City, arrived at B.C.S. in Third Form. His asthma bothered him a lot so he got out of such luxuries as the cross-country run, cadets and classes. However, he still managed to get some work done. He was the only block, I knew that liked the Nordiques ... Anonymous

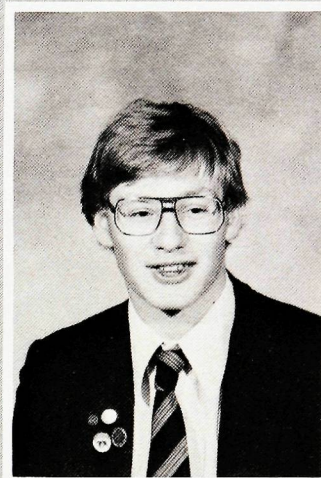

PATTY BARR (Far left).

Hi ya bum! Well, we've been roommates for 2 years now and we've had quite a good time! Remember: Our laughing fits, O'Henrys, tons of prep, jumping jacks, closets full of goodies, Mrs. Goodwin and late lights. Our Home-Ec gourmets, studying for exams! .. "No, really now!" Our secrets, Spanish lessons, love lives ... Well my dear ... You've been a super roomie! Thanx a lot for helping me through my times! Now we're graduating and going our separate ways, so take care of yourself O.K? Love Yvonne

ERIN BARRIERE (Left).

Thanks for the jokes, the books and the ways,
And for the guy who brightened my days.
Thanks to all those who were my friends;
I hope in your life the fun never ends.
Thanks for the smiles, the laughs and the tears;
It's been great these past few years.
Marc showed me how to keep in touch;
For that, I love him very much ... E.L.O.

XAVIER BASORA (Above).

Upon this rock,
I shall build my character,
And the gates of hell,
shall not destroy it.

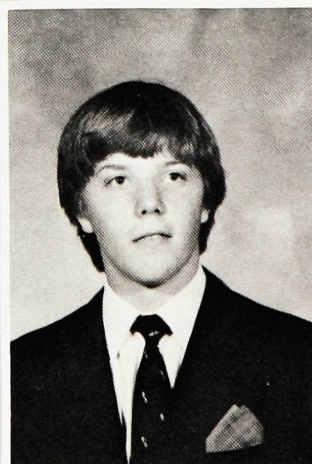

CHRIS BEAUCHEMIN (Right).

Well Chris, you've been here two years. I hope you know which way to go. I can't understand why you complained about your marks when you got 80% in Physics! That, of course, was most likely your lowest mark! By the looks of things, you had no major runnings with the Jock. All in all, I would say school sports and whatever else you did turned out very well! Good luck next year! P.S. What's it like on Center Field during witching hour?? ... B.O.C.

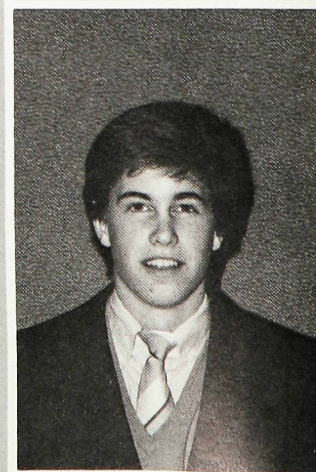

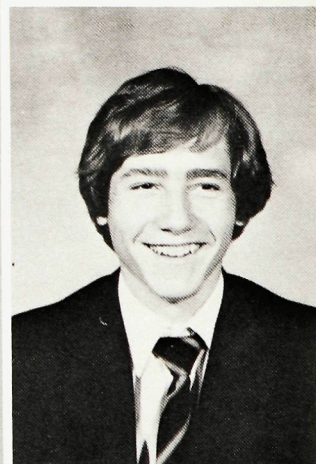

JOHN BECKER (Far right).

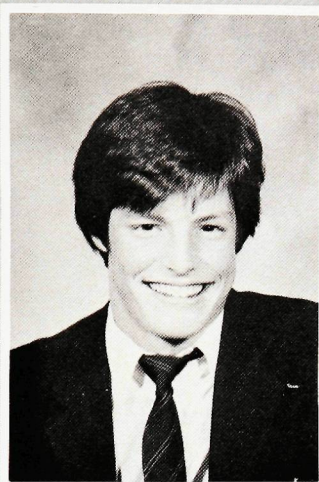

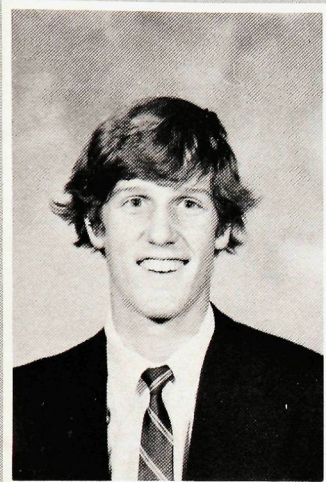

John rolled up in his 73 T-Bird with his sun glasses on, three years ago. The man from Alabama soon became involved in school life by joining the band. He soon showed us his Soccer talents by making every Soccer team he tried out for, and even got colours! He could be found sleeping in the Library, complaining about French class or showing off his car. Well John, hope to see you next year with your usual tan, Golf Clubs, and shades. Have fun in Florida! S.C.

ANDREW BISSETT (Right).

Droid was dragged into B.C.S. two years ago and was looked upon as being the man on campus. During Droid's two years here, he was involved in many activities. Everyone remembers him as Mr. Football in Fall, and Mr. Squash in Winter. Droid was a great choir singer as well as a super debater! He feels he is the best choice for Prefect next year. Droid is one hell of a dude, and I hope I see him next year. Four words to remember; "Hey bud, let's party!" Love ya always, Jannie.

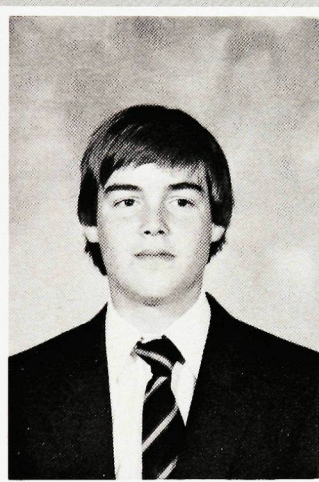

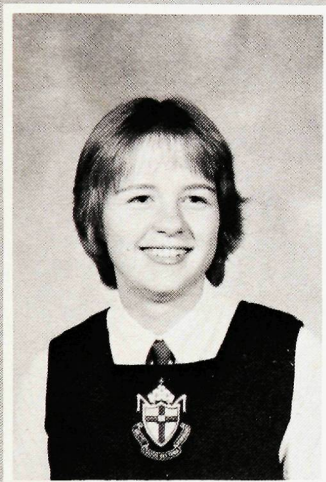

CHARLES BLACK (Far left).

South, Cournoyer, Unman, Btm. Soccer, Choir, Intrababy, Activities, Debating, nervousness!! (UGH!!), Yasser, Band, Joss, Diana, Shaving cream fights, Chapman, Scott, big boy now, Carnival!, Yearbook, Geog. trip, Zodiac, Feb. break, 361 Grosvenor, what did you have for dinner, Julius Caesar, Activities, Librarian, all the usuals, Warden, Supply Shop, Head Librarian, and much more!!

Love MOI (Judes)

CHRISTIAN BOISCLAIR (Left).

Christian first came here four years ago, with the intention of learning English. Well, give him some credit, he's still trying hard! Since he has been here, Chris has involved himself in much of school life. Football, Rugby, DHC, Scapino. Most of all, he has devoted his time in search of the perfect woman. He still hasn't found her, but boy is he ever trying! Chris, we've been through thick and thin together and I can't think of anybody with whom I would have rather done it with. Mème si tu n'est rien qu'une ... Love J.C.D.

THEODORA BRINKMAN (Far left).

Glass, my roomie, Poncho and Chinook, Karla, throwing mattresses out the window, water fights, three naughty Clarinet players, "I'm so embarrassed!", Doritos, Mo, baby bottles, Basketball, Fieldhockey, Intramurals, Activities Committee, Mrs. P (my secret admirer), Carnival, Corporal (Ha!), Bates, Magazine, laughing, crying, working, Mr. H, attempted diets (Sorry Karen), wardens, D.H.C, band trips, rumours, A.H, M.E, H.M, K.H, J.W, D.S, P.B, J.N, J.T, J.C, Y.W. and all my other buddies. Thanx Mom and Dad for making it possible. XOX

CHARLES COURNOYER (Left).

Froggy has suffered through B.C.S. life for 5 years. Not knowing or liking the English language, Charlie found it very hard the first few months in Second Form. He quickly picked up the English language though, as he could be heard running down the hall saying things like "Maudit bloke." He was a hard worker too. During Prep he always could be found studying the Hockey Games at night! Anonymous

PATTY CREASE (Right).

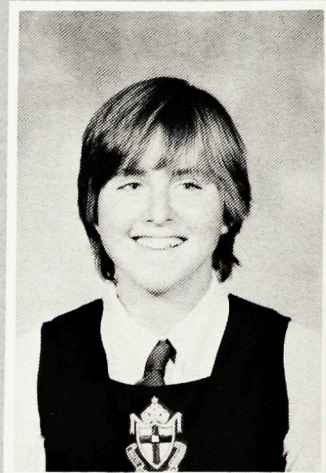

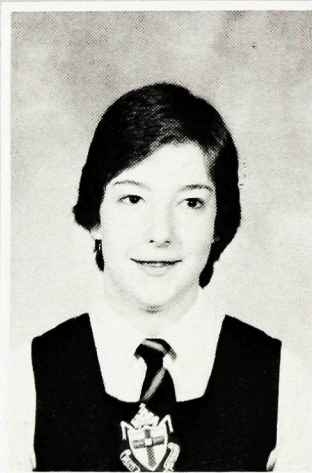

A girl who's willing to work, a girl who's willing to help, a girl who's willing to give a dazzling smile. A smile that makes my day, a smile that pulls me through. Believe it or not, she's no more a kid, but a girl who's ready for the greater and the better. Open up and let the world see into you. It's wonderful, I'm sure! Good luck next year!! We'll all miss you!

Love Anita

JULIE CRUICKSHANK (Far right).

Jules, you are my best of friends. I'll remember you 'till my life ends. In Second Form you did appear, to Seventh you'll stay, or so I hear. In Third, Jules, Theo, Tom and Joss. In Fourth it was the freaks of Ross. In Fifth you were a Carnival Head, in a dress you thought was lacking thread. In these six years you've done it all, Choir, Soccer and Basketball. Now in Sixth, when will it end? Jules, you are my very best friend!

Love ya always, Jules

STEVEN CRYAN (Right).

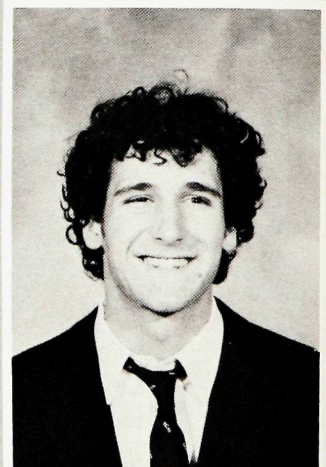

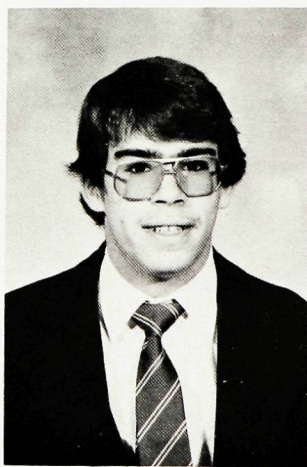

Steve came to B.C.S. five long years ago and has been with us ever since. He joined the choir and the band and although he did not make many teams he participated enthusiastically in intramurals. Steve could usually be found playing piano, or loitering around Gillard House. If we don't see you next year Steve have fun wherever you go because that's what you always believed in. Look at each day with new hopes!!!

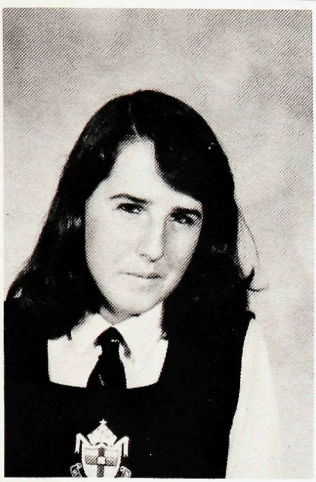

Friends

ROBERT CYTRYNBAUM

Thanx Jon, Mo, Chuck, AB, JW, Mom, Dad, Scott, Jen, Uncle Desmond, Sherm, St. L

RAQUEL DIAZ (Far left).

Raquel came to B.C.S. for her first year in 1982 all the way from Mexico to see what all the Bishops were like. She flew into Glass House a little late, but she got here! Raquel went to Intramurals but needed something challenging (That Mexican blood, believe me I know). She then joined Jr. Fieldhockey. Raquel has really enjoyed this year, since she really likes to meet people and she has found this to be a great experience. Well Raquel it was really nice meeting you - Que te vaya bien con carino ... Yvonne

TIM DODGE (Left).

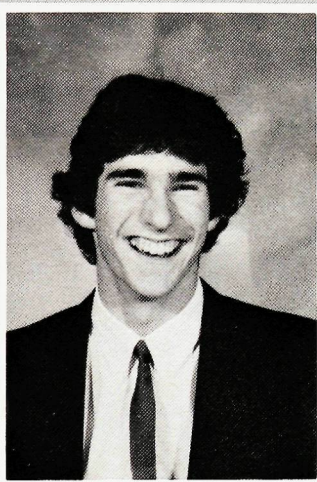

The artful dodger was a model student. He was always helping the teachers and his school. Remember on one occasion he did at least 50 hours of work out of the kindness of his heart! When I arrived, he showed me that there was more to B.C.S. than just school books. 10/23/82 at 12:30 the artful became a member of the B.C.S. 5-0 club. Thanks R.C. Tim would also like to thank the R.L's; G.U. House where we partook in great academic achievement. "Hey bud let's party!" Long live the Artful Dodger!! - M.P.U.

CLAUDIA DUBREUIL (Far left).

If I leave tomorrow will you still remember me. 'Cause I must be travelling on; there's too many places I've got to see. I'm free as a bird now, and this bird cannot change.

Claudia

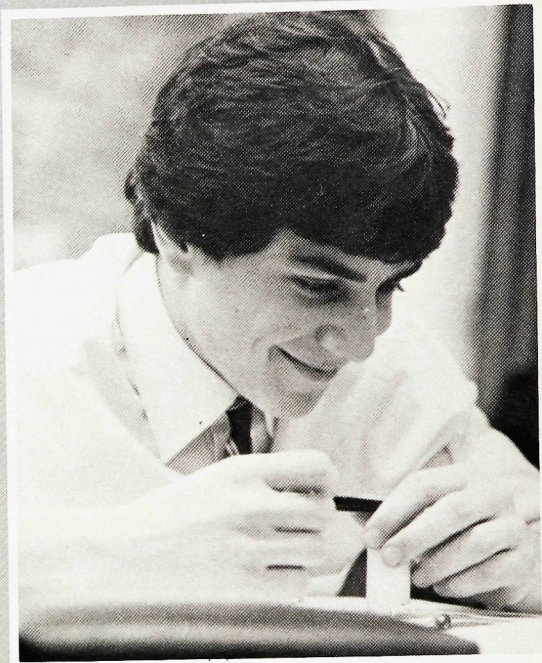

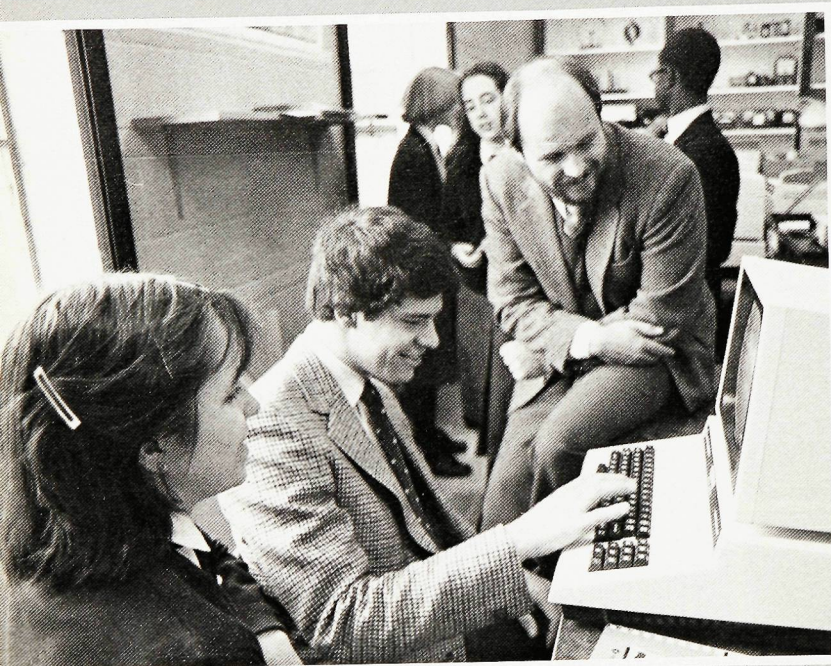

JOHN DUNN (Left).

Though he is still attending B.C.S., John has already made his mark here. Having been the fastest athlete for two years, John has built himself quite a reputation with the girls. In fact, he became the first member of the "I love me" club with Mike Stauffer as President! John's contribution to our social life was flirting with Jannie and being a D.J. His pizazz altered (not for the better), when Dom became his roommate. I wish you the best of luck in the future!

Christian

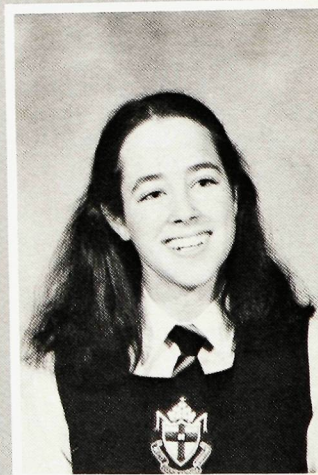

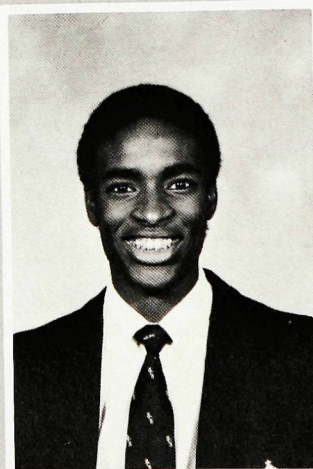

BALDWIN EVANS (Right).

I don't know what can keep two very different people together as best friends for so long. Thank God there's such a thing! I've enjoyed O.J.'s company and friendship ever since I've arrived at B.C.S. He's a great guy! Being the top athlete here, O.J. has won himself quite a reputation. (He was even a member of "Le Escort" service!) I don't know what you'll do in life O.J. but just don't forget your Canadian buddy - especially if you find yourself the lead singer for Van Halen! Hope to see you next year! V.K.

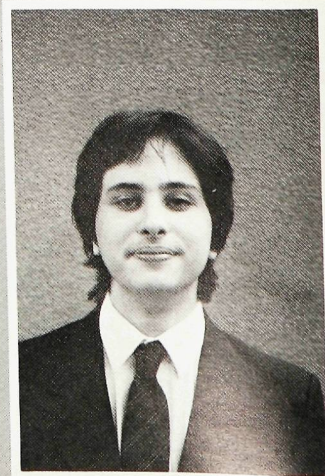

HOPE FRASER (Far right).

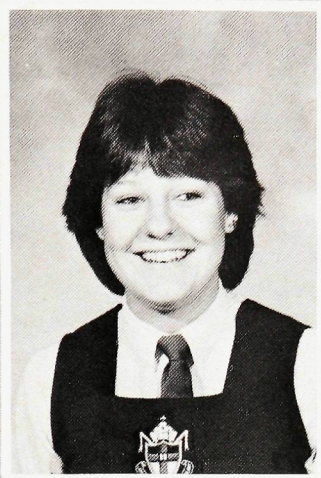

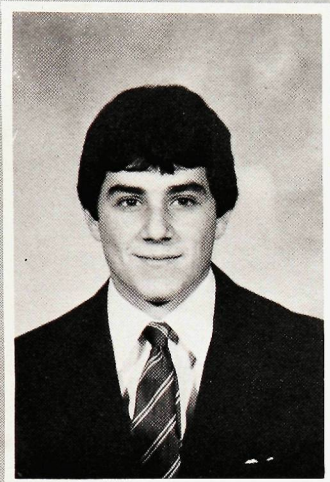

Dearest Stubbie, always try to remember ... Your invisible roommate! Your Long John Silver walk, all of your fights with Jen! How you always babble on ... and on!! So much for majoring in Biology!! Almost always being told a joke and not figuring it out for 10 min. (Repeat it - she'll get it this time!) Your name's NOT John John! Williams House and don't forget Smith! (C.M.). Please, only hand holding!! "With a little bit of luck, someone else will do the bloomin' work!" ... Tweedle Dee

YASSER GABR (Right).

Third Form, South, N.S.L, Flag Duty, Btm. Soccer, Buddy Burger, Btm. Rugby. Fourth Form, Captain Btm. Soccer, cake in face, "Oh! You _____", Valentines Day! I.H.A.X, Fifth Form, Day student, Chemistry, Physics, Jr. Soccer, appointments on Monday, I.H.A, Math class. Sixth Form, Morocco, Graduation, SO LONG!!

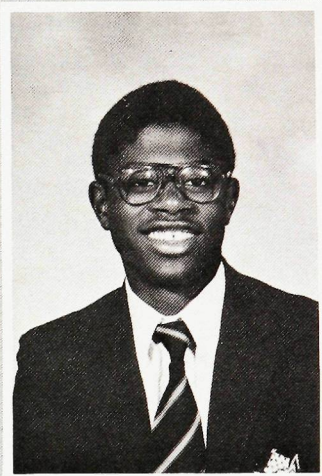

ANDY GAUDET (Far left).

Name: Andy Gaudet, Otherwise: Varsity. Ambition: Accountant, Probable Destination: Doing his parents income tax. Pet Peeve: Preppies and Disco, Weakness: Rock music. Favorite Pastime: Going to Sherbrooke on Bisques. Favorite expression: CENSORED. Sun sign: Capricorn. Prototype: Spock. Activities: Sports, Grad Committee, 50's Club.

JOANNE GILBERT (Left).

She arrived late in her first of two years. Trying desperately hard to fit in with the crowd, Jo soon became "ringleader" not bad for a girl who just wanted a few friends. Jo wants to become a cop, why not, she's already proved she can't get away with a simple crime. This year has been a better one for Jo, so far, no more crime I'd say that's pretty good from an "x-ringleader's" point of view! Lots of luck! Love John.

OWEN HINES (Above).

Enzymes?? This native of St. Hilaire (located on the scenic Richelieu River) came to B.C.S. with the intention to leave the school as a brilliant scholar and reputed athlete. Has he succeeded? Yes indeed! As a matter of fact he's leaving with more! Having said all the good points of Owen, I must state that there are bad points ... (no comment). Seriously Enzymes I wish you good luck in all future endeavors,

Your Roomthing
P.S. Don't get into trouble!!
P.P.S. Boogie to that FUNK!!!

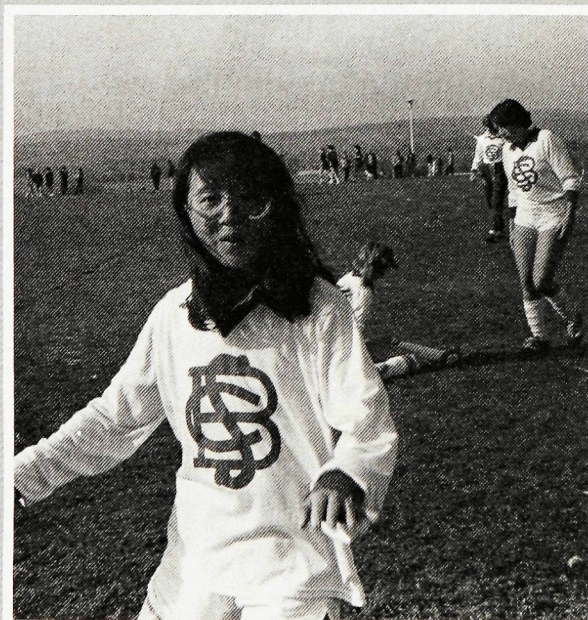

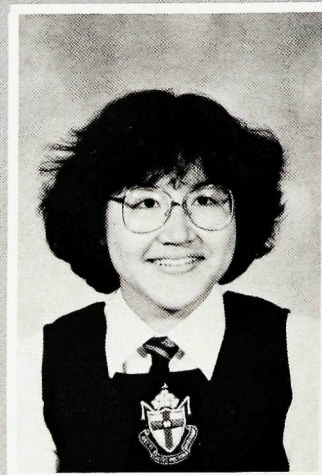

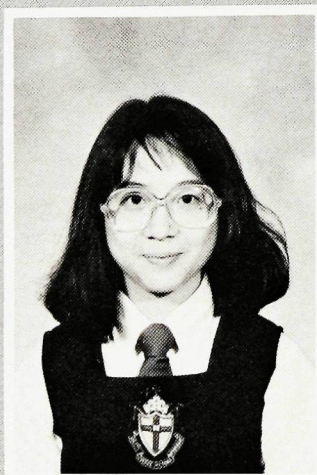

ANITA HO (Right).

Bish-Bish, Julius Caesar, oogies and olies. This brings back all memories that I've enjoyed. Smiles I give, tears I cry. I only wish it'd come once more. I came here with confusion and fear. I went from a second former to a Graduate, a girl not knowing girls can play Soccer to a Senior player. Thanx to all my friends who pulled me through. This place has taught me a lot, whether it's good or bad, only I know .. Dear Roomie, don't forget our meeting in 20 years! I'll keep on eating Doritos until I grow nice and tall!

KATHARINA HONOSUTOMO (Far right).

Many people say Katharina who? All they have to do is ask someone from Gillard House, we all know who she is. Gillard benefits from her being around during junk food attacks (TUCK). Also, her enthusiasm keeps us all encouraged to go on. It was hard coming into Fifth Form from Indonesia, but Katharina did it! The stepping stone to life is Sixth Form and Katharina's doing it. The finishing touch is Seventh Form. Go for it!

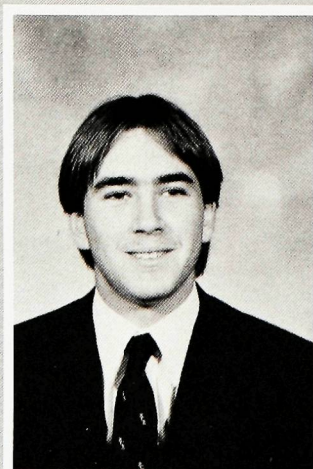

N.E.D.

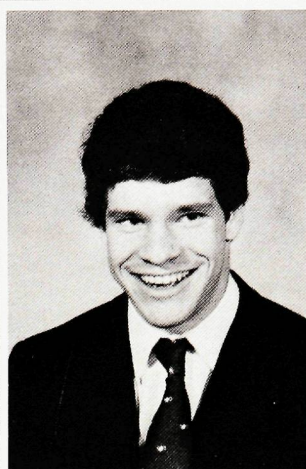

JOHN HOTTE (Right).

Came to B.C.S this year as a typical Smith Houser. He was on Jr. Football for his first crease, which he found very rewarding. His activities in which he joined were numerous? As for academics; well he achieved his personal best. John whatever you do HAVE FUN in the process!!

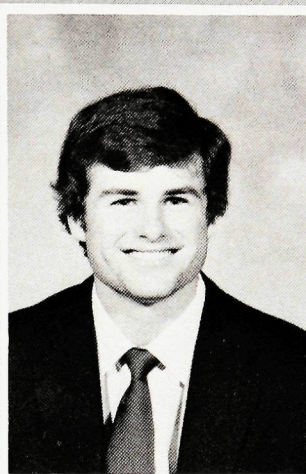

A FRIEND

RICHARD HOY (Left).
Tomahawk Rich? Na! Not that savage! This man (Ha!) who calls Rugby a gentleman's sport, came to this Concentration Camp 4 years ago. His main achievement was getting Academic Tie after Academic Tie ... Dick also excelled in the rough sports such as Rugby, Football and Hockey. In the house, Rich was known as a great help (on homework). This year, "Junior" made Rich a House Captain. The end of the world?? Rich is now in control over the house. We hope to see you next year Rich!

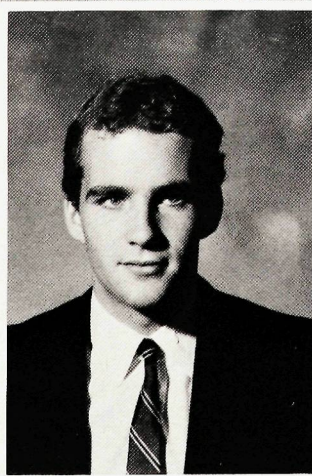

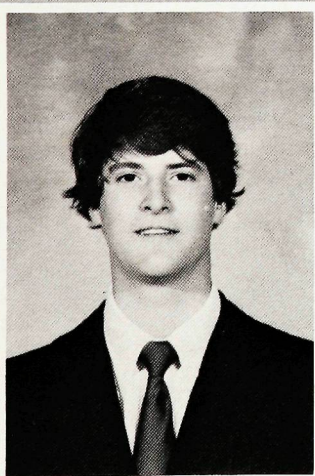

Anonymous

SCOTT HYNDMAN
(Left).

Who else beat up all the Fourth Former's while he was in Second Form? Who else could sew Colors covering his entire jacket? Who else would get canned for having a Shaving Cream fight he wasn't involved in? Who else growls at people when they talk to him? Who else would wreck two rolls of film in one night? Who else was nicknamed "Puke?" Who else is going to be missed?? It must be Scotty!!!!

C.C.B.

It's hard to fit all of V.K's achievements into this small space, but here goes! Kurt came here in Third Form and quickly made friends with all of the girls. As for the guys, well, they came later! Since then he's become known by all for his excellence in sports and in academics. Who else has received an 80% average every term since he's been here, and still stands out in every sport? We've been best friends all the way, and I hope you'll remember those nights in the Squash courts playing music, and those days on the beach back home. See you next year!

EDWARD JOURNAUX (Left).

A quiet boy with a good personality, made his entrance into B.C.S. this year. He came from Mac and he was lost and confused! His wish was to be "Someone!" He played Soccer, and tried to be Pele, but he rode the pine, and "Galileo Galilei" for Chem., because! Usually you can read "Le Journal" in Sr. Soccer and Sr. Hockey. His problem: Too nervous! I know that is becoming better, and one day you'll even be able to go out with the girl of your dreams, you know what I mean Ed, don't you? La pressiz M.M.

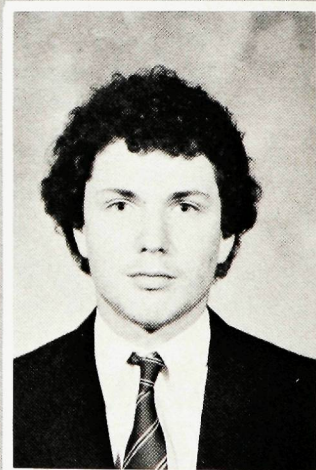

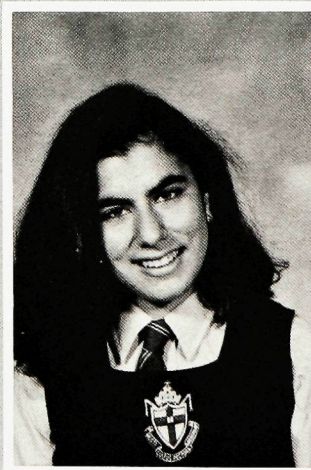

NICOLE KANDALAFT (Right).

Nicole arrived here in Form 2. Since then she has proceeded to dazzle us with her running ability. She even made it to the Provincials this year and came eighth! Quite a musician, she was in the Choir for 2 years, and has been squeaking her clarinet (just kidding!) in the band since the beginning. However, I think that the achievement she will be most proud of is getting through those long Dudley PSSC classes!! Nic, you've been a good friend! Good-luck next year! We'll miss you! Luv Munch

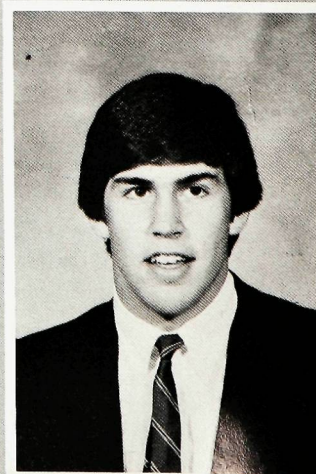

HUGH MACKINNON (Far right).

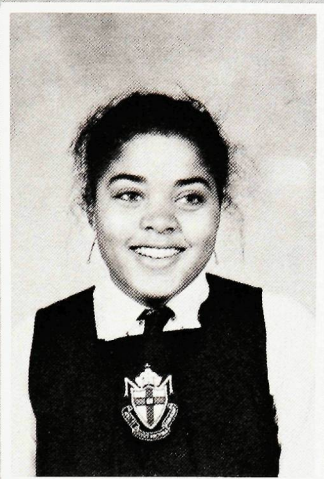

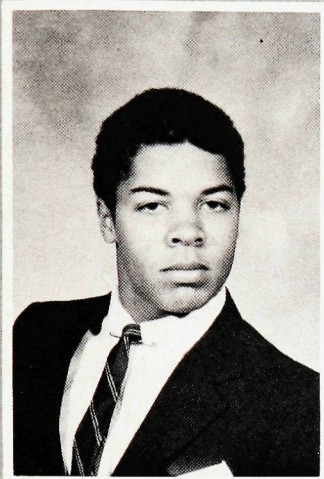

"Are you able to drink from the terrible cup I am about to drink from."

JOHN MARTIN (Right).

Rage'n cagen of them all from down South. A leader of the enterprise, "SCOTTY" (John), would rev' up his engines when it came time to play Football. Nobody would step in his way. I had fun watching you go through the defence ... and those Prefects! So long Red. It's your turn Denyse ... We've seen you through Rugger, concussions, Hockey; spearing, crippled arms (sorry), and who knows what else! Like you say to me, "Qu'est que je pourrais faire sans toi?" tak for alt, jeg vil huske vare tid samme, elske D.B. + R.N.

Dog backwards for God, that's him. Can't seem to get away from the action, whether it involves friendship or sports. Not just sports, but Earl with a style of many mixtures that makes one explosive chemical. The chemical ignited as a powerful Capt, in football; one of the elite. When the frost comes, Skin's head gets cold, but his feet get hot on the ice. The books are still in, but Doumy takes the beat when it comes time for a D.J. to move his feet ... John Martin

Marga came here not fully aware of what she was getting into. Every cheery morning, she started off with one of her favorite activities, N.S.L. ... Late of course. Marga's subtle humour and her attitude towards life is really quite amusing. She always created a warm and cozy atmosphere in our room until it got so stuffy that we had to open the windows! Most people see Marga as quiet although she can carry on an entire conversation by herself!!

Love Tara

JENNIFER MAY (Far left).

What can we say? Jen has been here three years now. The only word for her is horse, and her mouth of course! She always has something to say, and May always makes your day. As for Adam, from what we hear, we know she wishes he were here. On volleyball she was one of the best, and for soccer was asked to join the rest. There was a choir trip, a baby bottle (or two?), and that place "outside the window". Love you much,

Pips and Jo.

PAUL MOURNEUX (Left).

Cher ami, tu es arrivé ici cette année, tu venais d'un pays loins et primitif: La Baie James. Mais tu étais intelligent et un bon sportif. Tu étais dans first team hockey, vut que tu venais d'un pays de glace. Ton habillement préféré c'est toujours les "geus". Paul aimait tout le monde et tout le monde aimait Paul pour sa simplicité. Paul, tu rends une grande place dans mon amitié, et n'oublie jamais: L'amitié est le seul avantage que l'homme possède sur l'animal, c'est ce qui fair sa supérioroté. Un ami pour la vie.

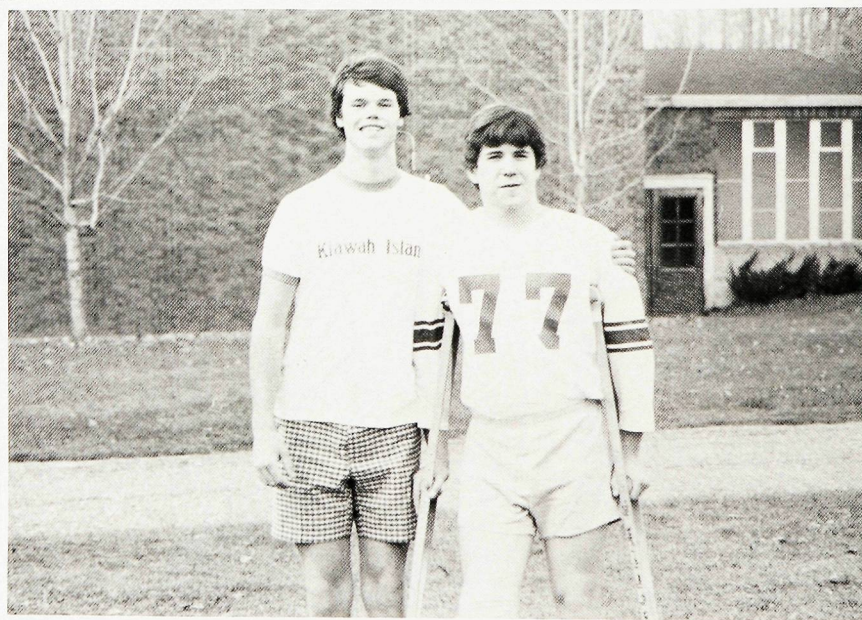

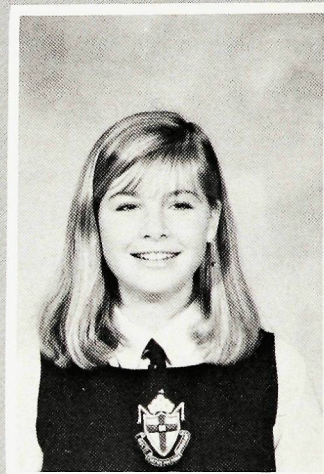

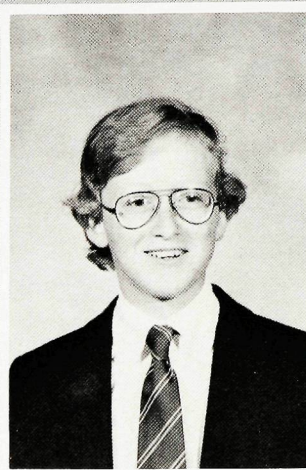

GEORGE MCAULIFF (Right).

George (Bird) arrived at B.C.S. and was taken for a man of different stature. George was known for his efforts in the activities committee, the 50's club, being sassy and goofing off. Athletically, he was a real tiger. After starting his career on intramurals, he worked his way up to Junior Football. Academically, he can be best summed up by one of his teacher's comments: "I wish he would do some real work". Well George, it's been great knowing you and I wish you luck in the future.

Rich.

JANNIE MCINNES (Far right).

"Let there be groove!" And there was as far as she was concerned. We soon learned to respect her individuality (PUNK)! It clashed with the Preps around (Fernando, John, Judi). Her roommate Josie taught her to acquire a taste for Spaniards (Fern). To this day she is still unable to get along without them (him). Obsessed with diets (!!). "I had no lunch so I can have one scoop!" Loveliness exclaims Velocity Vespette we love you! See you later Grease (Marilyn Suga) ... Love 007 and Duji

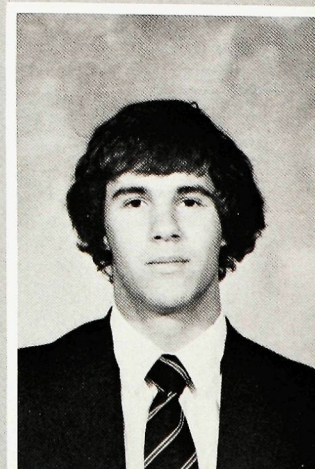

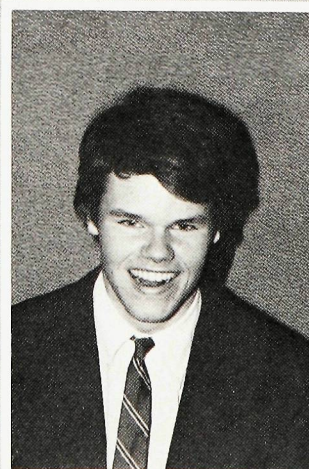

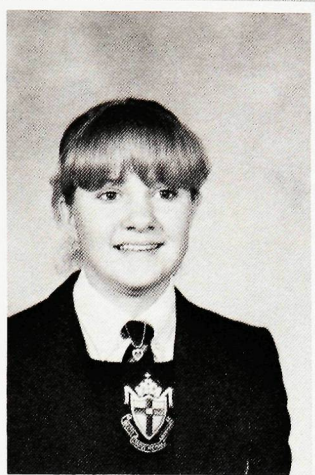

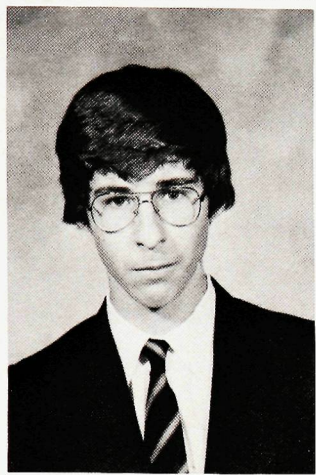

PETER MCMASTER (Right).

Known as McBates, he is recognized as a true stud, academic, Squash Champ, and promising member of the Choir and the list goes on. After three years of belonging to the Zoo, Pete has gained the position of Beat Master. I'll leave off with a few notes to remember: "Hey Bud let's party!", I get the front seat, best of all, thanks to Lobster Woman and Man and the bird. Anyway, on behalf of his friends, I hope he comes back for Prefect next year. It was golden ... Big Biss

RICHARD NEMEC (Far right).

ROBERT POLAK (Far left).
 "Oh no you don't!" He stuck me with writing this Grad Article, okay; "Polak"; Rob the Bilingual (?); Playboy, maybe not; Diplomacy, "Oh come on Sir, just because ..."; "Shut-up Beau-Beau"; "Okay Jen - Attack!"; Remember our mini food fight? "Good swing eh?" "Goober"; Day student power!; "Madame?"; That about wraps things up. See you 'round! ... E.B.

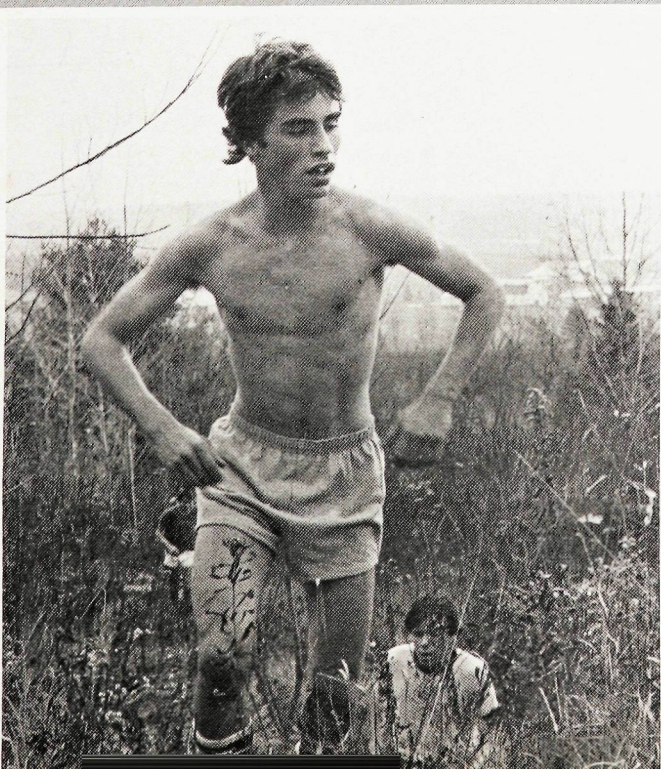

JULIA POTTER (Left).
 Julia arrived here bright eyed and bushy headed with high Hopes. She came straight out of Beaconsfield: From Yvons to Perrettes! I've known Julia two years and she's a REAL person. I can't say much more about her without getting in trouble! This is for Julia: Can I check out your closet? Wanna' read my wall? It's October Fest again. Let's go by the river. What about those Tea Dances and do you want some special coffee? All I really have to say is I love you Pot-Pot!! ... Al your pal

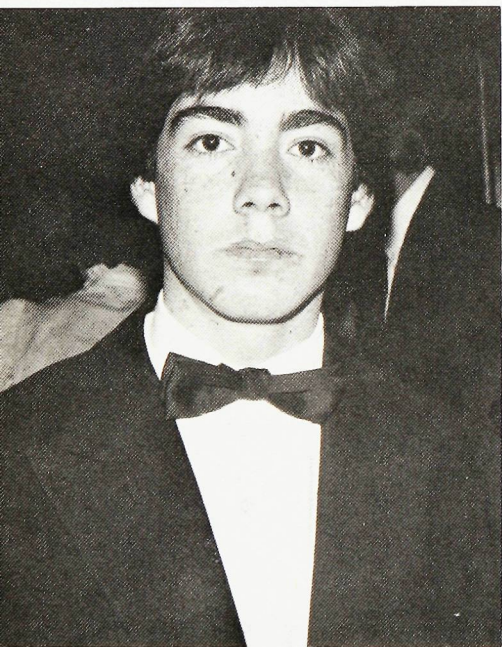

NANCY REES (Far left).
 Don't ever forget ... Coming well equipped with your age-old phonograph, that waterfight with Anita which ended in 2 laps!! Spitting contests into the river on Saturday night!! Finally, finding the right roommates!! Your favorite Witch-Woman! "Dieting is the curse of the fatman." "La nuit d'amour." ... Being the slave-driver of the Dining Hall!!! Will you ever stop wearing that tie? Will you ever stop dieting?! Will you ever forget Rocky Horror ... we sure won't! "When in doubt worry." Tweedle Dum

BRUCE ROBBINS (Left).
 In the year of our Lord, 1979, a strange phenomenon happened. An alien boy with huge eyebrows appeared at B.C.S. This boy quickly adapted himself to the B.C.S. environment, but that wasn't enough. He participated in sports, but this strange boy's specialties were academics (unbelievably), and extracurricular activities that we won't mention (50's club for one!). This year he has unbelievably cooled down some of his activities (because he was caught). Well I wish you the best of luck next year!

CHRISTOPHER RONALD (Right).

Born with a silver squash racquet in his mouth, he was off to a bad start. So am I. He walked until after crowning Ethel the Dog the only queen of ears. Opening the doors to the blurring sound of liquid-rainbow, melted Aero's. What of patrolman Frank Leonowich (48 married, two kids?) ... Once upon a time there was an engineer, drove a locomotive both far and near. Accompanied by a monkey who would sit on a stool, watching his every move. We'll have lunch, Puff-Puff m'love ... B.C.

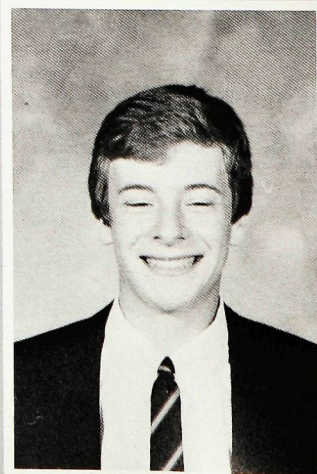

PETER SANCHEZ (Far right).

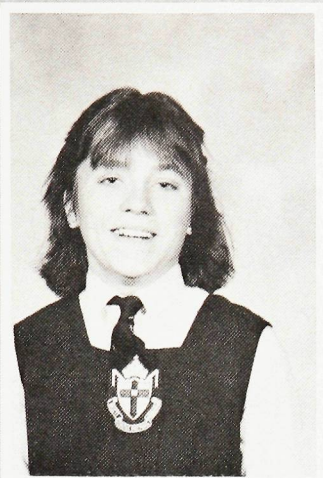

Since Pete came to B.C.S. last year, we've been great friends. We've gone through a lot together, some good and some bad, but things always worked out in the end. I'll never forget the night after the 1st Tea Dance when our friendship seemed to become more open, and we became real friends. Peter has managed to stand out in sports such as Sr. Soccer and is also a great Tennis player. "For a person who has only been at B.C.S. for 2 years, Peter is a very prominent member of our community." A famous quote by Mary. Anonymous

DAVID SANDERSON (Far right).

David came to B.C.S. in Fourth Form and started off in Grier ... The Boys ... He showed his talents in Jr. Soccer but always liked to observe Sr. girls' Soccer and Sr. Volleyball, remember L.R!! His second year came rolling around and Dave entered The Zoo! This is the year Dave entered manhood, P.M. and J.K. showed him the way! Dave's looking forward to being a Prefect next year and all the other macho activities available for the-on-campus guy! Hope to see you next year Dave and don't forget, "Hey bud let's party! Luv Y.W.

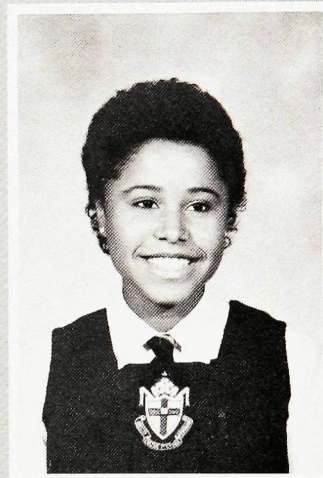

JONI SCHEIB (Far left).

Hey Gones!! Joni swept in here in Second Form, a bright red fireball with those glasses (Ugh!!). She changed after Fourth Form and everyone noticed, including a certain Seventh Former called C.M! Then, what was that flow of letters from California? Never forget skiing trips! Now there's B.R. He goes without saying! Her talents showed through in Soccer, Volleyball, Intramurals and Track. Remember: Wild Functions, Sadie Hawkins dance and Bruceee! Just be yourself Joni and keep in touch! Patty

Munch or Sarge arrived in 2nd Form with perfect timing, right after the Cadet trip. At first she went relatively unnoticed (due to her immense size) but then she startled us with her amazing performances in the theatre, and her teakettle collection. She is really best known for her ladylike skills in Soccer - Burstball award?? Her love of running, getting into traffic to avoid it. Then there's band. She's been in it almost as long as her feud with its conductor. It was long, but a great experience! Good luck - YGFJS

PIPPA SHADDICK (Above).

Pipapig, Plumpa, Pips. Sports have always been Pippa's good point. Ex. On IHA and Field Hockey her true nature was exposed. Remember: Tuck raids, frozen TV's Hymn 131, Of Mice and Men, tears, Champagne, Creature and MSA? Now for your favorites (aside from gum): Chris, DDD, all the J's, Mr. Owen, worms, Jocie, Football, Hockey (Sr. of course), 23, 16, 8, 36, Mrs. Coleman, claws, mouth, laughs, deafening noises, but's, Champlain Bridge, XX K-KK - Canary Islands, Michael Angelo's David, and of course her "Best of Pals", Judi.

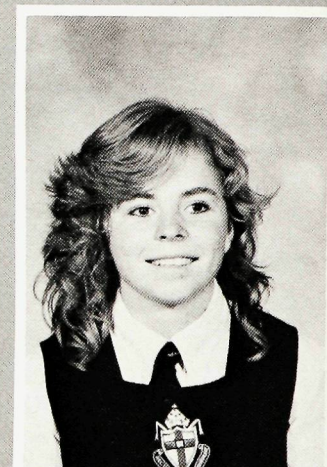

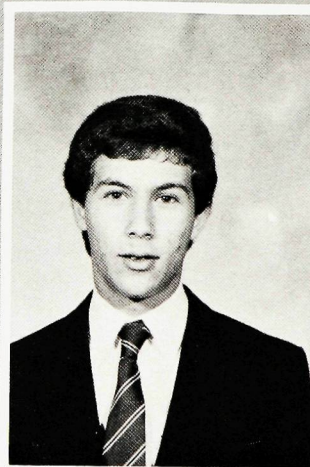

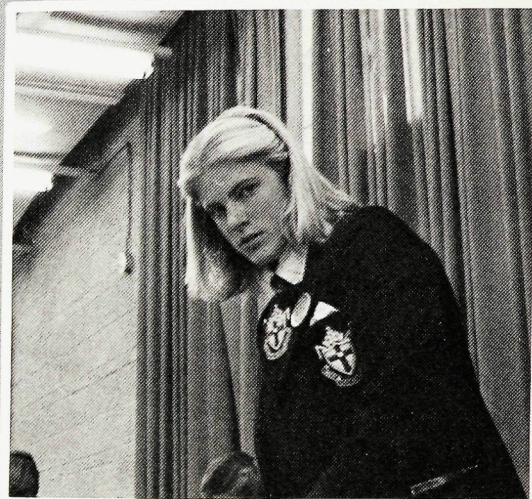

ANDREW TENCER (Right).

The elephant came crashing through the trees, standing shoulder high to the top most branches, a beast of such magnitude that he stupefied me. I asked myself, "What right have I to a grandize myself with a mechanical toy like a rifle so that I can equal this towering beast?" and my folly became apparent, and I could not pull the trigger.

TARA THOMPSON (Far right).

Groink, alea iacta est, hoch vom leben, pippa parton, helden, narnia, aspidistra, beati paupere bizarre, J.K. kein buestenhalter, strive, moody lou, giacinta, next Desdemona or Anne F., or General Hospital, "Der wahnsinn ist eine reise zur hoelle, dasgehirn schankt, und erkrankt ... nina hagen wow! Ddhartha is good for you.

Love Jolu K.

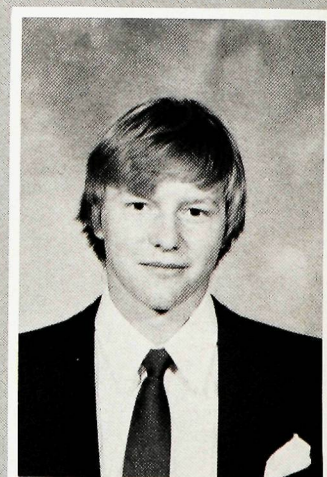

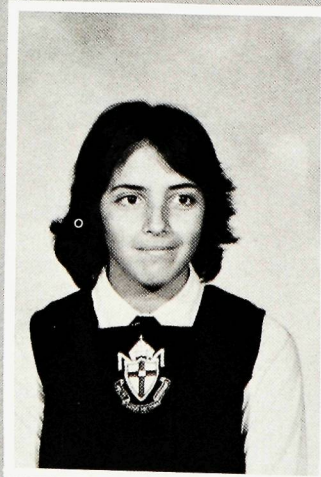

JACKIE TRINCADO (Right).

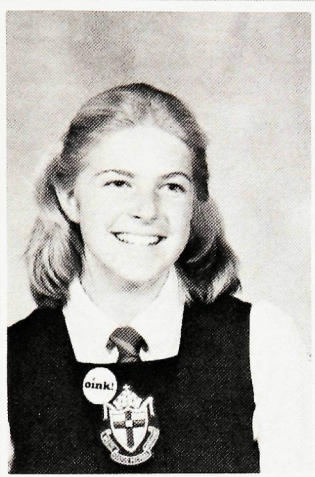

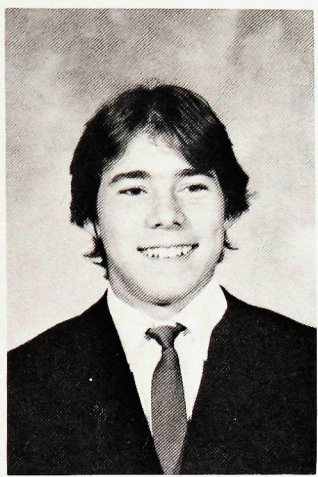

Dear cg lit's conviction time your cg has broken up bo went exploring and buffy went after the enemy remember form 3 how you scared the shout tof everyone form 4 you took to winning colours and jj's form 5 was devoted to sh bn oh cm km etc also the cripples club and mr harvey, even a taste of band form 6 was to avoid nl worship forget it actually lady like (no more beats) you taught us a lot eg. plant growth and other such essentials your judgement and advice have always been relied on even your criticism has been appreciated thanx jackie for being one of the best friends we ever had take it easy man love everyone

--J.S + S.G.

MATT ULLMAN (Far right).

Matt came to B.C.S. in Sixth Form, entering a whole different world than his former Beaconsfield life. Matt had many activities like Senior Soccer, S.D. with T.D, J.K, M.M, A.B, at R.L. House. Being so involved with sports and social activities, he didn't have much time for the mobs of girls that followed his every footstep. Matt looked well clad in his Junk Shop suit is how he made his impression on the girls. Thanks for being there Matt. Words of wisdom to finish with, "Hey bud let's party!" Partner in crime, T.D.

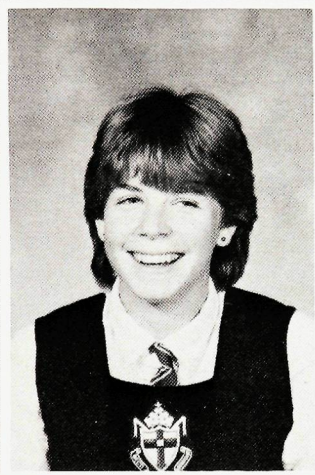

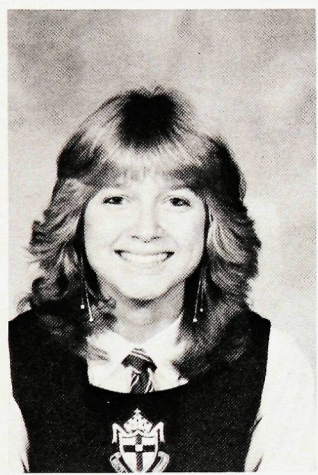

DOMINIK UNTERBURGER (Far left).

Dom Burger arrived here 3 years ago, and was looked upon as being a young stud. All the girls feel Dom should be quitting school and turning model for pay. Burger involved himself in Football, as holder for punts, "Nice hands!". Burger stands out in school because of his assortment of colorful clothing, Big Dom somehow found himself a part in Scapino, Sylvestro (type-cast), and as for Dom's personality, no one ever missed it! Good Luck! "Ciao-Ciao" for now! ... Jo and Bates

JUDI WEBSTER (Left).

Having known Jude for the past three years, we can reminisce on the past. THE ACQUAINTANCE YEAR: Remember late nights at Williams, the forgotten piper, the Italian Stallion, Tom, every night with Joss-Preppy roomies much? THE ELITE YEAR: Dom, Legends, hot nights at the Zodiac, Dom, the island, Dom, DOM!! THE GRAD YEAR: Ray's Gang, head of the Activities Committee, the engagement to Will, and that's just a start. Well Jude de Budes, Ith, Duji, you're well on your way to many important positions in the school. Staycool, yelocitytoof!

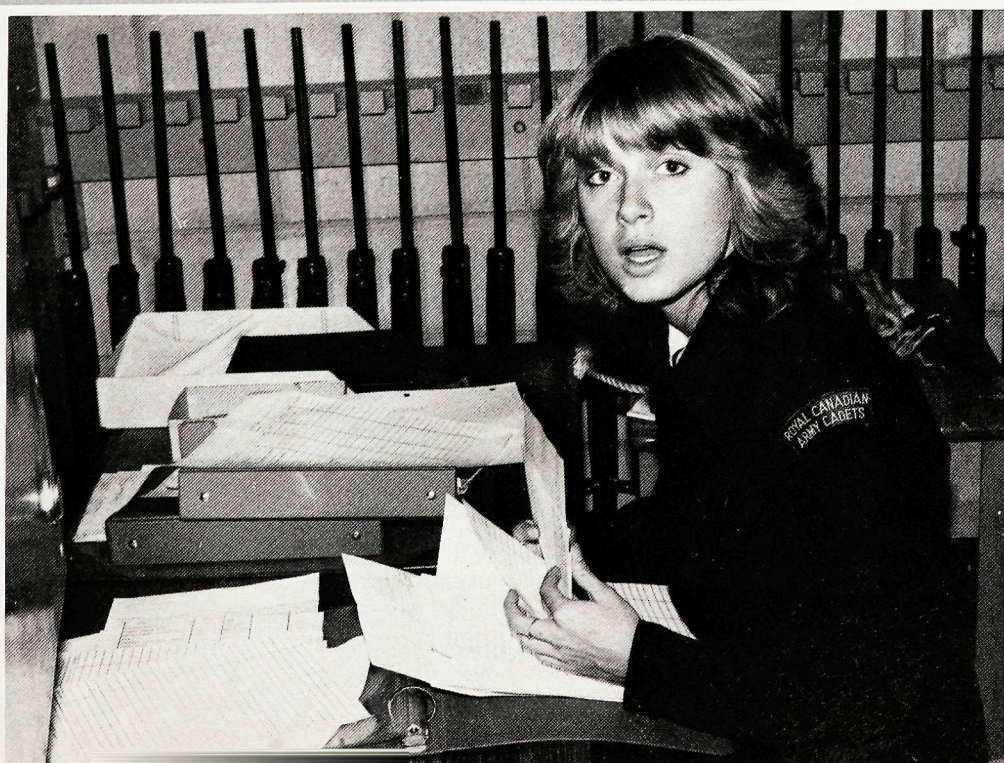

YVONNE WESTPHAL (Far left).

Ever since I first met you I understood there was much more about you to admire than your remarkable beauty. At first I could not assure whether it was your smile, your kindness or your wish to help others. Now I know what it is: it's you, and that's why I love you so much. I wish expressing love in words would be as easy as it feels, unfortunately it is not so, and the words I'd like to say do not exist yet. My feelings for you go beyond my words. Until something else is invented ... I love you very much! Antonio

JOANNE WHITTY (Left).

Dear Whitty Bird: We've been here three "Unbelievable years" now, can you believe it? Remember: Bantam Soccer, the Rollerskating disaster! casts, back massages, "Turn Me Loose", math problems, Johnson + Johnson Baby powder fights (!!) ... Joe, we've been through so much! You have been a super friend. I'm really glad you came back this year. Don't forget those Sr. Football games! We're off to College soon so Good Luck in the future! Take care! Love Yvonne ... P.S. No more casts, O.K?

It seems like just yesterday that we walked into room 109 and tried to imagine ourselves as prefects. Now the year is over and our stuff is all cleared out. A new group is coming in to take over the room, but they couldn't take our memories - pizza fund, M*A*S*H, John's interior decorating, the window ... It was tough sometimes but we managed to pull through. We had a small group and many individuals within the group, but as the year went on we grew closer and began to work as a team. The teamwork and the support is part of what kept us going. I enjoyed working with all of you. Thank you for all your hard work and perseverance, it was a great year.

SENIOR SOCCER

Mid-season!

We'd lost to W.I.C. at home. That was bad. We'd gone to Montreal and lost a tournament. That was worse. We called a team meeting to straighten things out. Said the coach, "That was 'orrible!"

But it worked.

From the uncertainty of the start of the season, the B.C.S. First Team Soccer had gone downhill. A few early victories gave the ragged crew a confidence it hadn't earned. The forwards and midfield were skilled and disorganized; the backfield was unskilled and disorganized; Matt stood tall, but the goal was taller - and wider.

Then came the basics, the circuits, the Attos, the "Ski-uls", the plays, the set pieces, "99"! The coach coached - the players listened.

First place was locked up. The final game approached. The players were a team - the most skilful in the league, and though the smallest, able to hold their own with the roughest.

The afternoon was wet - an advantage to the less skilled opposition. The afternoon was dark - another advantage. The play was tense and tentative, but the TEAM played and the TEAM won - convincingly. There were outstanding performances, key plays, clutch saves - but it was not the players themselves who won the championship, it was the players together.

JUNIOR SOCCER

Now look, we weren't as bad as the record shows. We started off with a new team and towards the end, we almost pulled it through and got our second win. "God, Dave, what a save!", was one of the most familiar sentences on the field. "What are you doing, B.C.S.?", was our motto, right Carlos? I must congratulate Mr. Cassir on his coaching job. I must admit we weren't all easy going. See you next year.

Fred. Y. Gabr

BANTAM SOCCER

This year, our Bantam Soccer Team was very skillful. It was made up of a lot of new students, but there were some veterans who helped to keep the team together. Thanks to our whole team effort and especially to the coaches, we had a superb year. Also a special thanks to the "Slocumbian Attos", which kept us in excellent shape. We had great victories all through the season, and our team had the ability to take the cake but we were unlucky in our semi-finals. Way to go, team!

The Captains

WHACK IT IN!!

SENIOR GIRLS' SOCCER 1982

Here's to Cait, who never got cleats,
But in the field, you should have seen her feats.
And here's to Erin from the Emerald Isle
Who lights up the team with her great big smile.
Here's to Jill who boots and jerks
And tackles and runs and jumps and works.
Here's to Patty who carried our kit
And brought out the ice and did her bit.
Here's to the greatest goalie in Quebec,
In Canada, in the world, by Heck!
Here's to Julie, the Captain of our ship,
A mighty fine player who watches the flip.
Here's to Claudia who runs all over the place
With "determination" written on her face.
Here's to Jane with her twinkling feet
And her skillful play and her footwork neat.
Here's to Anita, our old China,
And few of us could play any finer.
Here's to Jennifer to whom I gave the sack,
But she hung in there and played her way back.
And here's to Avery with the limbs so long
Who rarely put a foot or a long leg wrong.
Here's to Julia who dekes them all out,
And turns on a dime and twists about.
Here's to Nancy, the back with a kick,
Who saved the day and had the trick.
And here's to Joni with the bright red hair
At which the lads of Kimball and Proctor all stare.
And here's to Jackie S. who ran and hustled
And tackled and jumped and kicked and tussled.
And here's to Tara, all feet and red hair,
Who spent a good deal of her time in the air.
Here's to Jackie T., the walking jewellery shop,
Whom the opposition found it pretty hard to stop.
And here's to Judi who played her part,
But she hurt her knee at the very start.

THE JUNIOR GIRLS' SOCCER team had a very enthusiastic and energetic season. Mr. St. Jacques helped us with his encouraging words; Iron 'em out! Iron 'em out! ... smooth. The highlight of the season was teaching Mrs. Goodwin how to play soccer (what a jock!!)

In our spare time, we challenged the football players. Even though the score wasn't in our favour, we still have more finesse, skill, and class! No matter what position we played, we always went for the balls!! Over all, we had a dynamic season.

Good luck next year! Love, Alison and Sheila.

BANTAM GIRLS' SOCCER

Well, what can I say, guys? The season wasn't that bad after a rocky start. At least we won one game, eh? Thanks go to our Captains, Helga and Tonya, who tried to lead us through our games, although we didn't help too much. Of course, all of our thanks go to Mr. D. and Mrs. Major. We couldn't have done it without you two running up and down the sidelines and cheering us on. Especially for your cars, or we never would have gotten to that game at Galt. Please, guys, don't ever forget:

- watching the bantam boys
- number 34
- cheering the bantam guys
- oh, my God!
- help, it's crawling up my leg.
- cold days watching the bantam guys for crease.
- "No, Yael, we want bantam soccer for the crease party, not football!"

P.S. - Mrs. Major, aren't you glad you know how to play soccer now!

THE ENTERPRISE

1ST TEAM FOOTBALL STAR DATE: 1982:09.10 "THE FINAL FRONTIER"

These are the voyages of the gang from the Enterprise, a small, dedicated elite chosen to represent the Federation on the playing fields of the Eastern Townships, Montreal, and the Nation's Capitol.

Our Mission: To seek out and challenge strange new aliens; to do battle with adversity and compete until the final whistle.

Cheers of: "We don't mess around no-no, we don't mess around" and the more memorable "We want to hit and be hit" echoed throughout the galaxy as we collided head on with our opponents.

Senator Howard received safe return passage for the third consecutive year while Shirley Russell and Old Boys nimbly evaded our tractor beams.

Courageously led by our Cap't. "Earl the Pearl" Kirk, ably assisted by Mr. Spock, Scotty in engineering, Chekov in navigation, Zulu in weapons and a host of others (the Crew), we inspired each other to reach our goals.

We will remember the gang's tireless efforts for light years to come.

Thank you Gentlemen,
It has been a great year!

X-COUNTRY

"Meet in my classroom at 3:25", (notice he gives us five minutes to get changed), "dressed to run", (I thought we were going dancing!). "Hills today", (I told you we had to race tomorrow). "Don't forget to update your calendars", (you mean ... we were supposed to RUN).

Running tip for the day.

The Surgeon General has determined that running can severely impair both physical and mental health in laboratory mice. Dr.'s Perrieski, Commenski and Foxi are continuing this experiment on the human race. The results contradict the aforementioned hypothesis, with strong representation at all meets. Six members of the experiment were last seen in a whale hunt heading off to the Provincials.

Seriously, from Heather and Sue we would like to thank all the members of the crease, and especially the three outstanding coaches who made our last season a very memorable one.

The doctors proved how hard work and determination can pay off.

SENIOR FIELD HOCKEY

New Coach with university shirts, new players, old players, gossip, fast food on trips, bus drivers with dark shades, speeding ticket, shower caps on a rainy day, puppet sticks, mud fights, cracking noses, "Hard to Say I'm Sorry", sun bathing delenceman, the key and a lot of laughter. Thanks for everything Miss Lane.

JUNIOR FIELD HOCKEY

This was a team it was great to be a part of. Everyone was a beginner and eventually each girl became quite skillful at this complicated game. The team learned to organize offensively, effectively stopping the attack of the opposing teams and hence, winning us most of the games.

ON THE BOARDS

SENIOR HOCKEY

I think the closest comparison I would make to this year's team would be "A can of mixed nuts". We had our very own religious Owen, and on the other extreme Tinker. In goals we had cool headed Ullman, and hot headed Bunge (remember that the coach pulled you out). We even had a twelve year old who wouldn't leave for a game without his toy, not that it would have made much of a difference, right "Martin"? We had people from all over the world on our team, from Saudia Arabia to the booming metropolis of Thetford Mines. Doumy and Fritz managed to get along as defensive partners, even though Fritz outplayed his bigger, or rather older brother most of the time. And finally we come to our representatives from Lennoxville and it's surrounding areas, Kurt, Darren and Robert. And I guess I should mention the Coach, who we put up with until the end, but most of all, who put up with us until the end. Thank-you very much Mr. Goodwin.

P.S. Remember Dooling, it's not the size of the man in the fight, it's the size of the heart in the man in the fight.

BACK ROW: S. Hyndman, Mr. Goodwin, R. Polack, D. Turner, A. McWhirter, S. Stevenson, Mr. Cruickshank. SECOND ROW: J. Dooling, M. Tinker, F. Maugile, J. Martin, O. Hines. FIRST ROW: J. Bunge, D. Doheny, K. Johnson, A. Setlakwe, D. Maugile, M. Marchini, M. Ullman.

BANTAM HOCKEY

This year's bantam hockey team was a totally different team than last year. We only had four of last year's veterans on the team. We started off the season badly, loss after loss, but then, with the help of our coaches, we started improving. By the end of the season we were one of the best teams in our league. In fact, we went the last eleven games undefeated. It was a great way to finish off our season.

All the players would like to thank Mr. Sherriffs and Mr. St. Jacques for a great season.

BANTAM BASKETBALL

Twas the day before we were playing a game against Galt.
 At the crease we were wrecks, and that was not all.
 Mr. McNish was yelling so was Mr. Cassir.
 There was Audrey Lemieux, always jumping with fear.
 Bilodeau-London was smiling her grin, while
 Tanya and Yael were just sleeping in.
 Tori and Diane, the forwards of the team, were setting up a block, and trying "the screen".
 Stienman and Ohana were fighting as before, Why can't they do it outside at the door.
 Helga's the smallest center we know, but when it comes to games, she puts on some show.
 Put them together and You've got Major-Hawketts, how else do you think we beat McKell's Rocketts.
 Congrats to our coach, a new kid, that's tough!
 As if eleven just wasn't enough!
 Too bad our coaches don't like our singing, what a pity,
 Because when we do sing, it's suicide-city!!!
 Thanks again Mick and Mr. Cassir.

JUNIOR BASKETBALL

-Who's the new coach...
 -Majic Merlin...
 -Chere Madame Goodwin...
 -Would you guys shut up...
 -Left, right, left and up...
 -Let's play ball...
 -Heads up...
 -Put everything into this... Galt

Despite a few setbacks, we had a great team!! Spirit, enthusiasm and ENERGY! We played hard, worked hard ("another suicide") and we made it to the finals ... but ... well we tried.
 Thanks

SENIOR BASKETBALL

Okay, so we didn't start out with any superstars, in fact we had a complete rookie team except for two returning senior bench players. Didn't sound too hopeful -- even our coaches thought not.

This feeling was drilled into us after our first few games. MV won by 47 points, GALT blew us off the court, and who ever else came along did the same.

Until, of course, near the end of the season. Our team even made the headlines, "B.C.S. UPSET OF THE YEAR" - we beat MV. So there you have it folks -- Never give up hope -- take it from us, we know.

ON THE REBOUND

SENIOR VOLLEYBALL

Volleyball is truly a team sport for if one person on the court makes a mistake the others must be ready to rectify it within a second and continue the game without getting down. With this in mind Miss Lane took on our team and with a lot of encouragement and skilled coaching, transformed us into a team in the true sense of the word, as can be seen through examination of the final results of the season. The spirit was strong throughout, no matter how bad things looked, and because of this a good time was had by all. Thank you Miss Lane and players alike for capturing true comradery and teammanship. This year will always be remembered. We'll get them next year!!!

JUNIOR VOLLEYBALL

This year, Junior Volleyball had a lot of fun. Since there wasn't a league, we had to look around for some competition ("Who did you say we're playing today? Cross-Country Skiing????") We improved as time went on, and we enjoyed the term. None of us will ever forget that wonderful Saturday when we came out the winners from an exciting seven-game match. Way to go Team!!!! That was an amazing day for all of us.

We ended the term with a great crease party. Now, by the way, where is Mrs. Sakamoto's house??

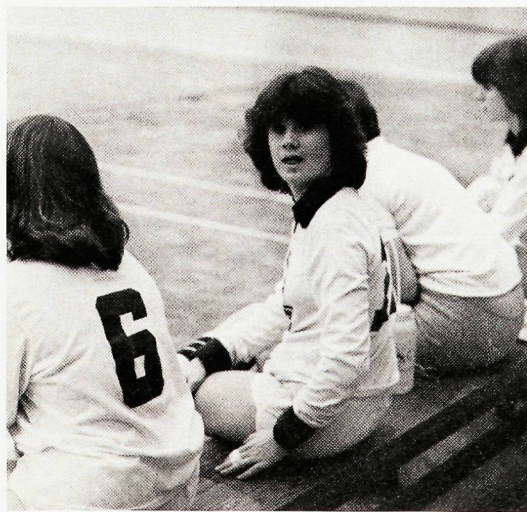

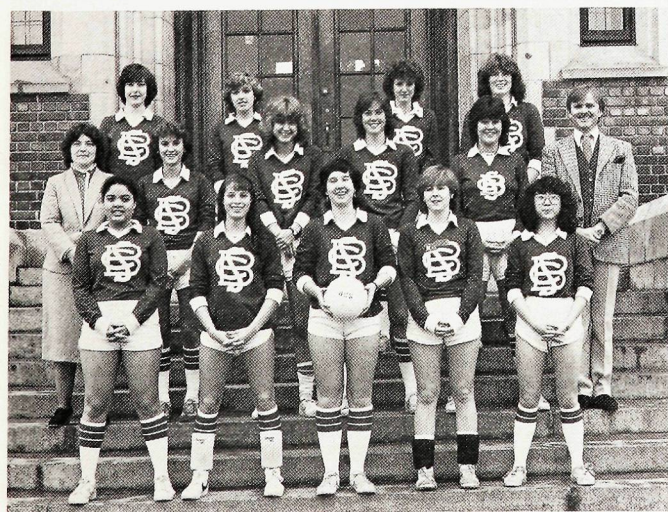

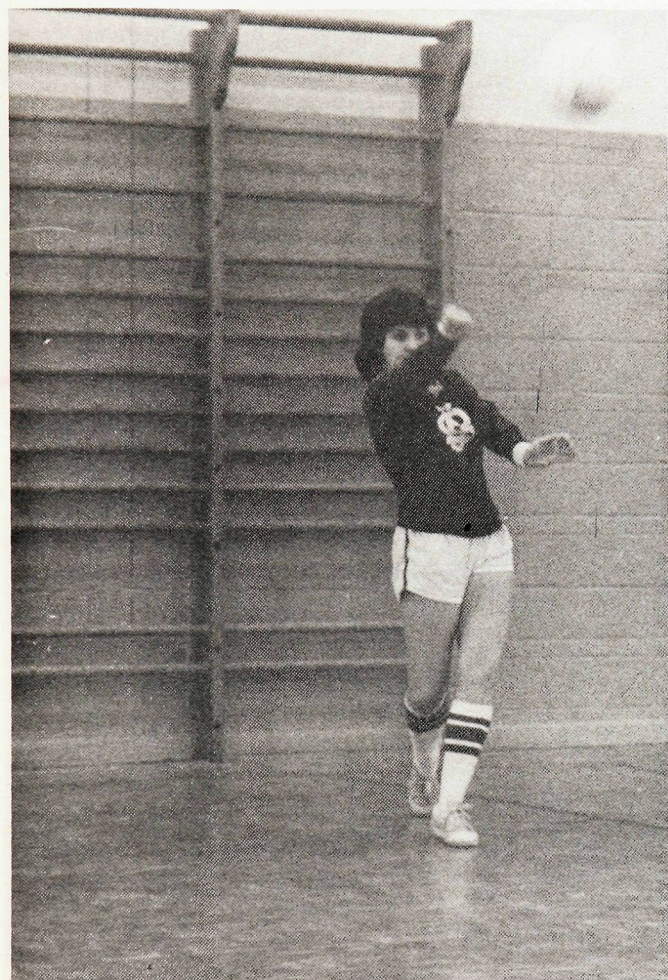

Congratulations everybody, and thank-you Mrs. Sakamoto for everything.

BUMP, SET, SPIKE!!

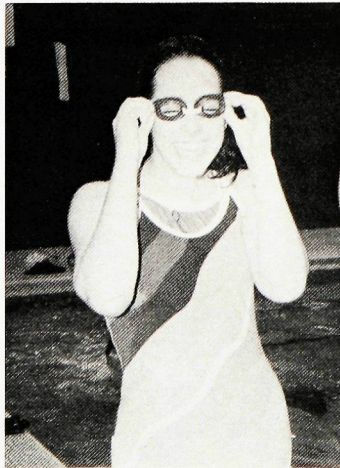

Due to the generosity of Mr. Scott Fraser (B.C.S. '44), students with athletic injuries were able to participate in a crease this term. The swim program, an innovative first at B.C.S. enabled students, who due to their injuries would normally have been exempted from a sports program, to maintain a degree of fitness while also working at rehabilitating and strengthening an injury, eg. sprained ankle, chronic back and knee problems, even a fractural nose, right Marcy.

The program itself, consisted of pre and post swim stretches. A 12 minute timed period, where students maintaining a maximum effort swam continuous laps trying to improve on their own previous attempts. The entire crease improved their aerobic fitness levels by gradually increasing the length of time they were able to tread water from 3 to 10 minutes. Judy Webster did this while holding a 10 lb weight. Other activities included relay races, inner tube, water polo, and aquatic volleyball.

But, of course, as with all innovative firsts, there will always be a few bugs that need to be worked out, afterall is an observation duck really necessary? And, whatever happened to those lovely bathing suits that used to cover from neck to ankle? Karen H., how did you always manage to get the front seat of the car, when the rest were doing a Barnum and Bailey act in the back? Finally, just how many students CAN a white Toyota hold.

I.H.A. 1982-83

An Electrifying atmosphere whistled throughout as the abundant, enthusiastic fans arrived for the 9th Annual Masters' Cup Gala Extravaganza. "Mercy, Mercy, Mercy," pleaded the crowd. Old-Time Hockey ... End to End Scintillating Action ... left even the staunchest supporters gasping in the stands.

Day after day, week after week, the I.H.A. entertained the masses that thronged to the stadium.

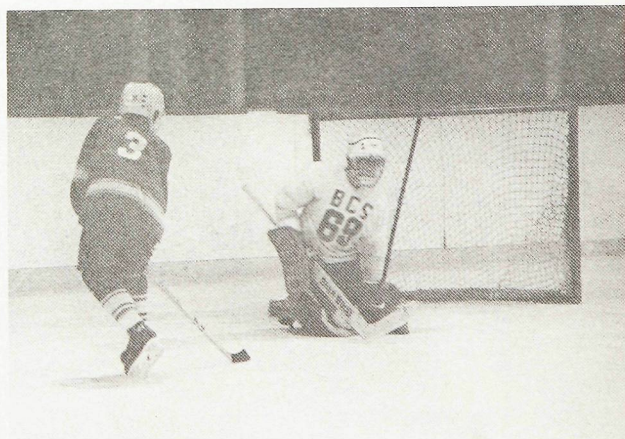

As the final whistle sounded, the familiar chant echoed throughout the building as Captain Ho proudly accepted the Masters' Cup, symbolic of a truly outstanding season, enjoyed by one and all:

Te Hee, Te Haw
Te Hee, Haw, Haw
Kato Old Boy, Rah, Rah!!!

E. Bishop	-2nd Liner of the Year
S. LeHoux	-Mighty of the Year

INDOOR TRACK

Inspired by the passionate leadership of one Mr. Common, 12 Indoor Track spirits were driven to reach their ultimate physical condition. Over the 105 days of grueling roadrunning and extensive weight training, Mr. Common managed to mold our rusty, chubby, delinquent minds and bodies into something more than they were. Although we were never given a chance to demonstrate our blossoming talents. As a whole the team was constantly filled with a sense of togetherness and unity. Those who proved themselves against other teams fared well and represented the school and the Indoor Track group admirably.

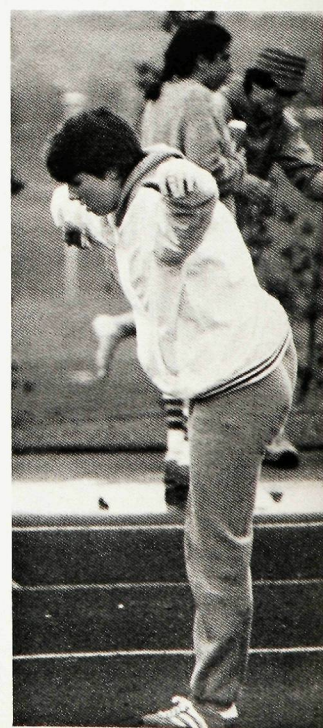

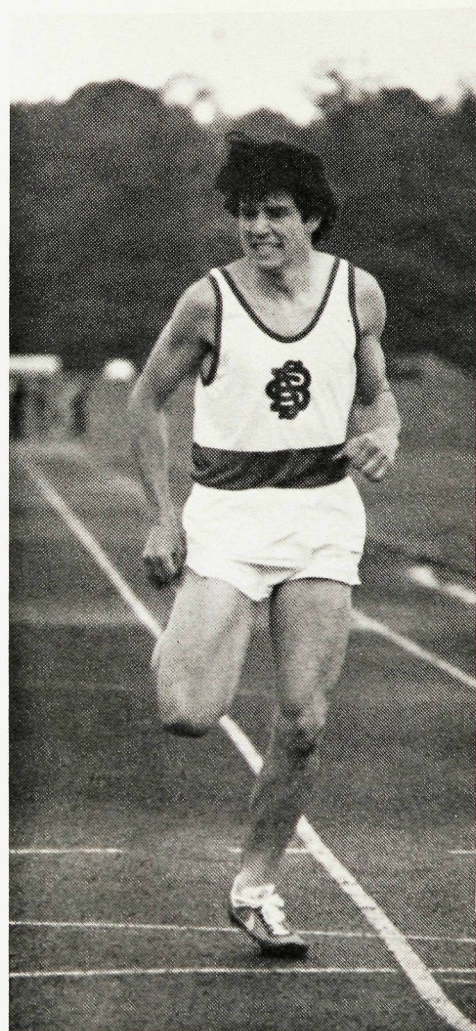

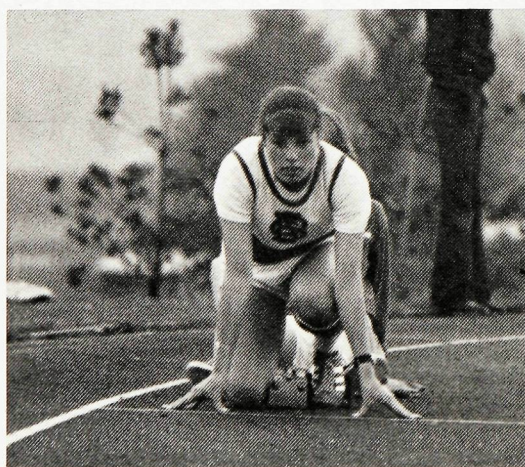

Mike Senior, Serge Demoulin, Mathew Scalabrini, and Nick Lehoux were of those who competed. A special mention should be made to Frazer Bertrum and Bruno Roy for their outstanding efforts in competitions, in which they excelled.

In whole the Indoor Track season can be regarded as a success, with special thanx to Mr. Common who was responsible for the guidance and training of all those who participated in the crease.

THE COUNTRY CLUB

GIRLS' INTRAMURALS

What is intramurals? It is a crease that contains all sports. It is a crease that has more coaches than any other team in school. It is a crease where Mr. Dutchon and Mr. Peacock train their soccer pros, Mrs. Gallagher and Ms. Major train their running pros, Mrs. Goodwin trains her walking pros, Mrs. Common trains her Tai-chi samurai, and Mrs. Bateman trains her tennis pros. Squeeze these all down to one line. If anyone asks what intramurals is. It is a crease that trains all round athletes.

ON THE ROCKS

Somebody stirs as Julia shouts, "Get up guys, it's five thirty and getting late." Groans can be heard as requests for oatmeal and powdered milk sound through the frosty air. "Pass me my pants, they're standing in the corner", says knobby knees Cecil. "Nothing like a good fresh swim through your clothes before hiking a footpath in the wilderness," states Major Turner with that too familiar sadistic grin of his.

Our stroll through the woods could be heard for miles around. Theo continually protests, but we know she loves you Taff. Steve (outward) bounds ahead and could be seen a mile or some ahead, scouting for Mafioso. Foxy continually cracks his A.T. jokes, as Joni says it's just around the corner. All of a sudden, Julie lets out a terrifying scream, "Hugh, the headless chicken is after you!" Susan restrains Hugh and reassures him that Julie really isn't all that bad.

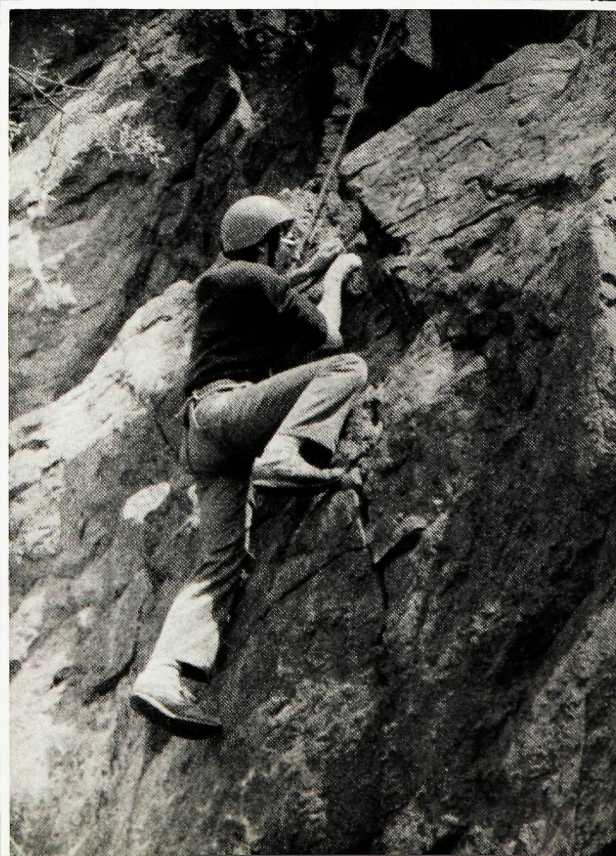

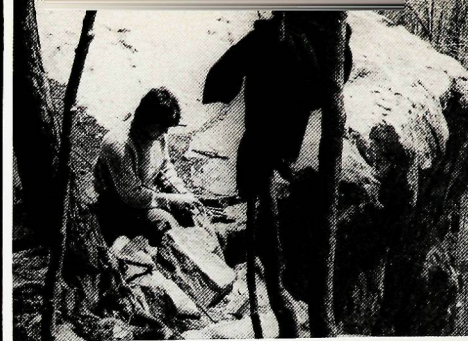

Nancy plods on talking to Ghandi. They seem to have a good relationship going since she picked him up. Jane keeps the spirit up with her words of wisdom. Suddenly the most influential words strike us. "There it is!" Bursts of energy spurt through us to get us to the Hazen.

In the chalet, Yvonne desperately rips open a thick letter. A smile shines across her face, "Andrew!" Is continually murmured through her lips. Caitlin grins and bears Mr. Sherrifs' jokes and "laugh".

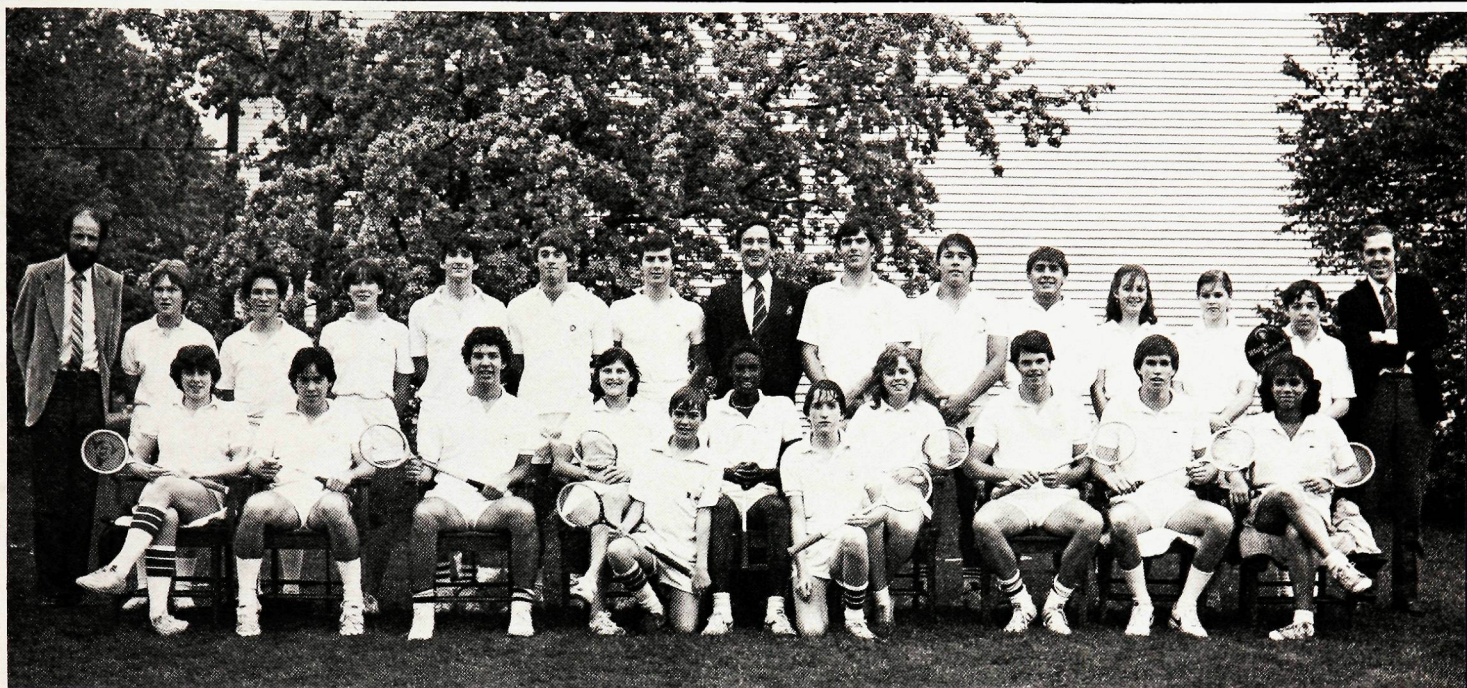

Joni runs inside and panics about streams. Caitlin calmly states Kayaks might do the trick. So she runs back out and wades the stream for a waterbottle.

Everything was quiet and calm as a knock sounds at the door. A blond, mysterious man of the woods enters the cabin to bid us "goodnight".

SQUASH

Q: What do you get when you take 26 of the wildest and craziest students on campus, 3 fun-loving squash connoisseurs, put them in a small white room and match them against some of the finest young squash players?

A: You get one of the best squash teams in the league.

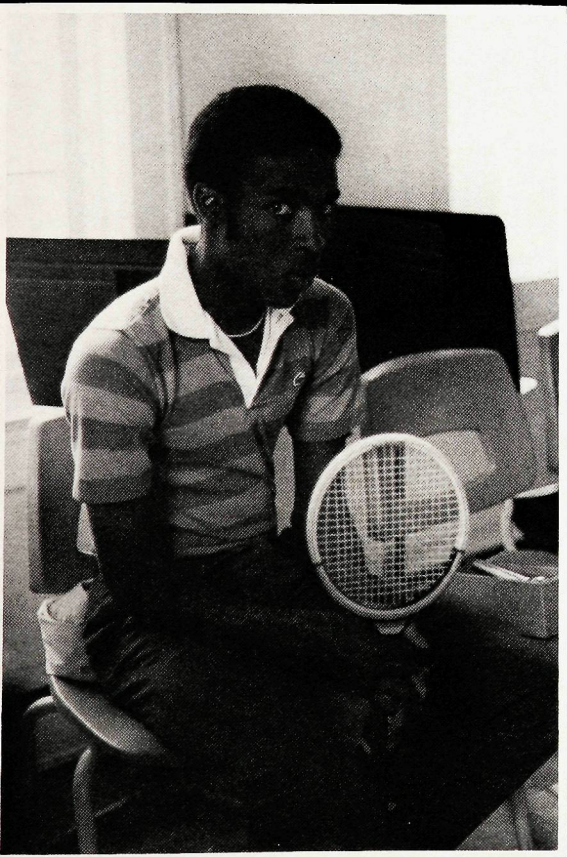

That's what this year's BCS squash team was. Style ranged from a conservative and polite game to an all-out slash and smash. Dress went from preppy to punk and almost every color appeared on the courts.

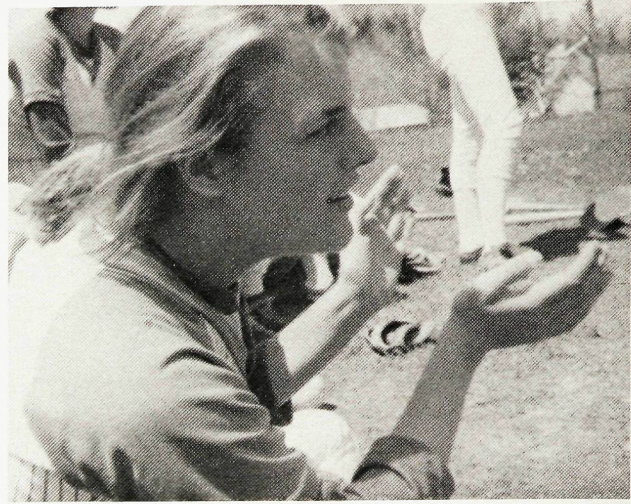

While keeping in tune with the latest styles, the team still managed to leave an impressive trail of wins behind them, winning in most entered tournaments. Where the team didn't win the opponents were given a good match.

This year's team underwent major reconstruction. More than half of last year's team did not return. We turned to the new students to fill the empty spots on the ladder. The new additions were very successful as many of the new students recorded big wins. Along with new players came an esteemed addition to the already outstanding coaching staff.

From tournaments to ladder matches to clinics to drills to meetings to trips, the year was a success. To put the icing on the cake, a SMASHING squash party ended the year (no one can say Mr. Bateman doesn't THROW exciting parties)!!

Thank you Mr. Bateman, Mr. Slocombe and Mr. Peacock for making it an enjoyable and somewhat educational year.

PLAY BALL!!

What a year! -- Remember ... Pam's 'wicked glares' ... Boomer's (JG) because ... Erin's gestures ... Avery's immediate alacrity ... Jan's singing (if you could call it that) ... THE RUGBY WARM-UP

The scene seemed painted in bright primary colours like a postcard. Young rugby warriors moved in a smooth ballet of stretching, kicking, gesturing and running. Numerous white rugby balls curved graceful arcs in the air, sharp white as starched sheets. The atmosphere quivered with tension like violin strings, full of excitement and nervous vibrations. The shouts of the boys sounded like the indistinct baying of a pack of hounds. Clear, cold sunshine lighted the playing field and dissolved the early morning mists, filmy gauze tatters against the spiky green grass. The coaches' whistles shrilled like piercing shrieks and the boys streamed towards the men like iron filings to a magnet. After a brief huddle, some returned to the playing zone while others remained statues on the sidelines. As sprinters await the gun they awaited the start of the game.

BANTAM RUGBY

As the season began it seemed, to our veterans, as if it might be a good year. After a long, and hard period of getting us back into shape; Mr. Gallagher's painful stretches, Mr. St-Jacques continual assistance to the forward play, and Mr. Slocombe's excellent coaching of the whale team, we were ready for our first game. Even though we lost our first few games, we ended up with a winning season and placing second in the league. At the end of our season we had many stars, which included Ross Hugessen and his hard but illegal tackling, which aided us. Due to Mr. Slocombe's "late arrival" he was unable to accompany us in our away games. In the end, our coaches were very proud of us.

LES RUGBYMEN

RUGBY AND RUGBY TOUR

The average person considers rugby to be a bonafied method of self-abusement and an outlet of violence, organized under the control of humanity and legalities. But, he fails to see the more profound side of the sport.

He may see the opposing packs sink together, head to head and bound together in a furious drive. He may see the packs, waiting in anticipation for the appearance of the ball from beneath the feet of the swaying scrum. The average observer may hear the warnings of the pack leaders as the scrum disperses and thunders down the field in pursuit of the ball. He may suspect the anxiety and anticipation of the backs as they prepare for an onslaught of the opposition. He may even marvel at the fluid consistency with which the ball dances down a string of attacking backs as the play is set into motion.

But, this is merely the strategy of the game. It is simply the method for gratifying the glamorous, romantic, even materialistic needs of some very dedicated athletes. However, there is a deeper, more significant level to the sport. In order to emphasize this more profound meaning it is necessary that Rugby be compared to another popular sport - Fishing.

Unlike Rugby, which concentrates strictly on humans, fishing uses not only humans but fish as well. Here it can be seen that because the fisherman depends on the appearance of a fish, the probability of his having a successful day is far less than that of a rugby player, who is guaranteed to have an opponent on the field. The use of a fishing rod is another prominent difference between the two sports. A similarity, however, between rugby and fishing is that, when fishing, the hook is in the water and there is no control over the success of the bait to attract a fish. Similarly, in rugby, once the game has been set to play, the coaches are helpless as to the outcome of the score and the success of the team.

This year in search of a profound realization about the nature of rugby, Les Rugby Men, took a successful 10 day fishing trip to B.C. Going to British Columbia strengthened our calling to the truest of gentleman's sports.

If ever you are sitting alone on a Sunday afternoon with nothing to do: don't go fishing, play rugby.

... BEING ACTIVE

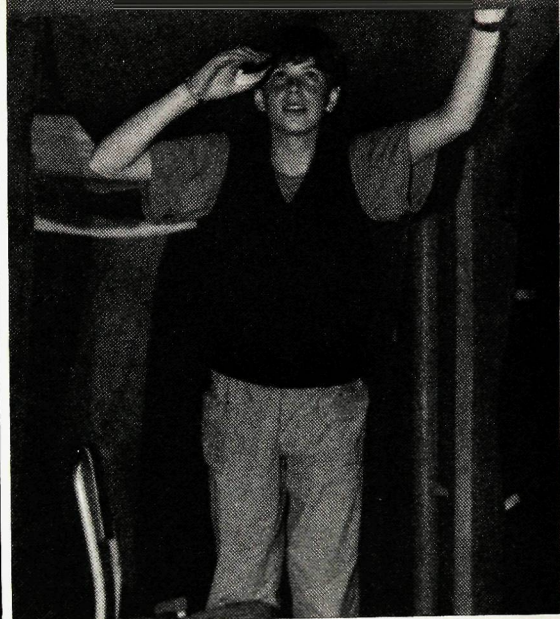

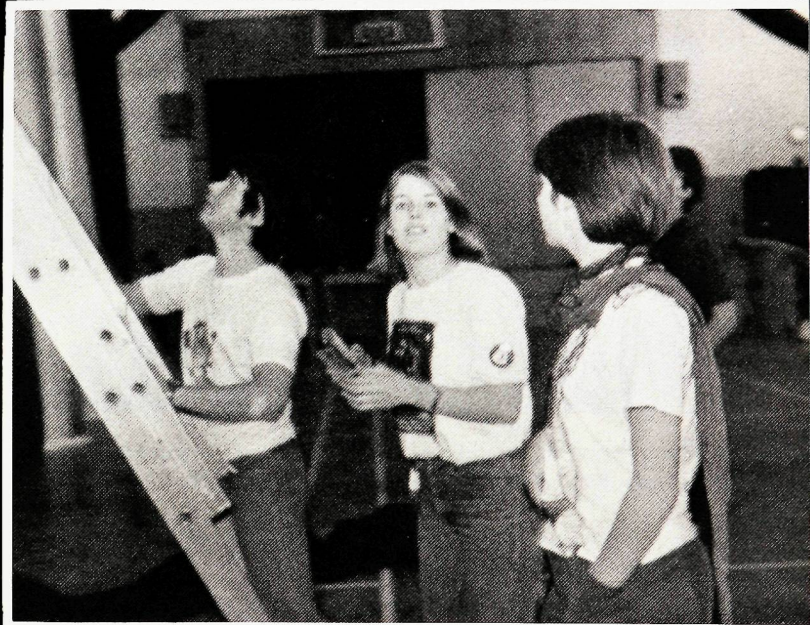

GETTING IT ALL TOGETHER

Activities Committee this year was made up of three crews of seventeen people. It seemed to function well. We would like to thank all those who helped us get through the more difficult times of the year; especially Mr. Perrier whose support, patience, time, effort, understanding was greatly appreciated. The records that the students helped pay for improved the enthusiasm of Coffee Houses throughout the year. Thanks also go to: Geoff Reeford and Stuart Gordon for building the new speakers: the D.J.'s, people who showed the movies and the members of the Activities Committee of 1982-83.

ACTIVITIES

THE HOLT LIBRARY '83

The Library is rounding out another active year that has seen the addition of 700 new volumes. To date the Library has 18 000 volumes in its collection and approximately 600 audio visual items.

Each month we have tried to put out a selection of new materials which are both interesting reading and good research material.

Shortly after Christmas we had word of the bequest of the personal library of the late H. Weir Davis, BCS 1918-1924. There are approximately 800 volumes in this collection and we have happily incorporated them into the Library.

As in the past years a number of Student Librarians have helped in the day to day operation of the Library. This year is no exception. The Student Librarians consist of 25 students from all forms whose help was invaluable.

Thanks go to the students and staff for their continued hard work throughout the year.

INSCAPE

The Literary Magazine "Inscape" was just an idea until a small group of dedicated workers managed to accumulate all the school's works of poetry, prose, Photography, and art work. This was "Vol 1" and we hope that, with the success of this edition, students will be beating the path to the doors of the English department, bearing all those great stories, Poems, drawings, and photographs for volume two. Thanks to all those who contributed and a special thanks to the Editors.

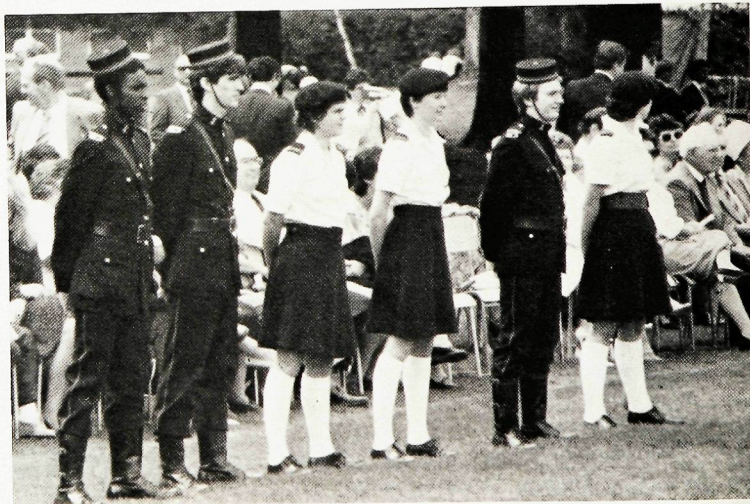

THE RUMOUR

The Rumour this year consisted of a few hard workers(2). Every reader enjoyed the issues which were abundant in Jokes (dumb ?) and campus news. Although we appreciated by all. Thanks goes to all those who contributed. GOOD LUCK to Brent who will be next year's Editor.

CADETS

BISHOP'S COLLEGE SCHOOL CADET CORPS

The Corps was ably commanded by Cadet Major Andrea Fields, has completed a busy and successful year. Many of our tested and tried programs remained, the new cadet camp, inter-platoon Swim Meet, Map Reading, Fieldcraft, and many more. Also, our optional activities, open to those more qualified, include the Hunter Safety Program, C.P.R. and St. John's Emergency First Aid, Duke of Edinburgh Award Scheme and Instructional Techniques and leadership.

The Annual again took place under sunny skies. Lt. Col. G.J. Oehring, Directorate of Cadets, was the Reviewing Officer. The parade, was extremely well carried out by all concerned, and the most impressive Inspection seen in quite a while. Thank-you all those of you who were responsible for making the Inspection such a great success.

CHOIR

To quote our choirmaster, Mr. Tamblyn: "This year's choir is really quite small." Well, the fifty-two member choir has enjoyed a long and busy year of singing.

Our thanks to both Mr. Tamblyn and Miss Weiler for their patient perseverance. Also to Mrs. Brady and Bishop Mathews for their support.

The choir this year has worked hard to tone their sound to a modest perfection. We sang senices here in St. Martins chapel, as well as St. Lukes, Sandhill, St. Georges, Lennoxville and St. Marks at Bishop's University.

We were also very lucky to have some choirs visit us. A concert and workshop with the Ontario Youth Choir, Mixed company from Yale, and the boys from Christ Church Cathedral.

Congratulations to Miss Weiler who is getting married and will not be returning next year. Best of luck to Mr. Tamblyn and the 1983-84 choir.

This year a group of dedicated individuals played an important role in the smooth operation of St. Martin's Chapel.

The Wardens carried out their numerous duties with quiet efficiency. Their efforts in greeting guests, handing out pamphlets, taking collection and directing communicants were greatly appreciated. Each individual's efforts showed tremendous responsibility and maturity.

The servers also contributed considerably to the preparation of St. Martins for services. In addition to weekly chapel services, the servers devoted their sleep-ins to serving. Their willingness and help was greatly appreciated.

THE CRUCIBLE

"THE CRUCIBLE"

Henry Miller's play presents a tremendous challenge to any company, professional or amateur. The fact that the Player's Club undertook a vast project, and achieved such success, leaves one filled with admiration.

Mr. Evans, with his usual flair for concocting illusions of space in tiny areas, designed, and built with the help of a hard-working stage crew, a marvellous complex of small stages, all working from a central pivot. In these areas Mr. Peacock molded and shaped his play with patience, understanding and skill. This was Mr. Peacock's debut as a director at B.C.S., but he had brought valuable theatrical experience with him, and it is to be hoped the school will continue to benefit. The over-all picture was greatly enhanced by the simple, effective costumes, designed, and (as usual) mainly made by Mrs. McGregor.

No play, however, can be successful without a good cast, and here the students are to be congratulated on achieving an extremely high level of performance, which resulted in a building of intensity during the play that is seldom felt in a school play. It is hard to single out any one player, as they all did such a good job, but it would be remiss not to commend a few for their special concentration and consistency. Susan Chadwick oozed piety and deceit from every pore, as Jane Hawketts had an aura of tightly controlled human love; Hugh McKinnon portrayed a strong man confused between his passionate nature and his restrictive society.

Moods as diverse as the peak of terror achieved in the courtroom screams and the poignancy of the quiet final line are only reached by hundreds of hours of hard work, dedication, and enthusiasm.

Thank you, Everyone!

THE GRAD COMMITTEE

Well the Grad Committee of 1983 started off from scratch this year. It seems that of last year's committee no one decided to return. Great. Oh Well. We gave it a try anyway - and not a bad attempt either. A lot of good ideas. I never realized how many hours it takes to organize 4 hours of fun!

I can't say whether or not Grad was a success because it's not for another 3 weeks. But I'm not supposed to be writing about that, I'm supposed to thank all those who helped. A special thanks to Joanne and John B. And as for Anita, Hope, John D, Doumy, John M, Yvonne, Andy, Tom, Charles, Nancy, Janet and Jane, thank you too. Let's keep our fingers crossed.

B.C.S. ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

A special thanks from the school is due to the B.C.S. Alumni association Board of Directors. Apart from meeting regularly each month, they have involved themselves highly in the organization of the activities surrounding Dr. Adelaide Gillard's birthday last fall and in the raising of scholarship dollars through the Alumni Scholarship Lottery this spring.

For 1982 the Board of Directors were: President, David McLernon '62; Vice-President, Daniel Lalonde '72; Margot Graham '69; Andrew Johnson '51; John Fuller '44; John Newman '61; Richard Glass '72; Sally Sharwood Drummond '51; Mary Cape Payson '63; Patricia Thomson '71; Andrew Johnson Jr. '80; Eve Smith Wickwire '56; Susan Fleming Pattillo '66; Jan Gerhardt '56; Cynthia Hands Lewis '50 and Michael Skutezky '66.

For 1983, The Board of Directors are: President, David McLernon '62, Vice-President, Daniel Lalonde. Resigning after many years of service is Mike Skutezky. Douglas Reynolds '65 is joining the Board in his place. Otherwise we are fortunate to have the same slate as 1982.

Reunions have been held across the country as well as in Great Britain and New York. Alumni returned to BCS for the traditional Thanksgiving weekend and again to celebrate the birthday of Chapman House at a wonderful party, hosted by Robert and Julia Common in May. Old Girls have gathered also at King's Hall.

As always, the yearbook project was a long and involved one. Because we elected to follow a new program, and had to take time out to learn about it, actual production did not start until just before Christmas. From that point on the committee was attempting the impossible by trying to catch up. It was lucky that we saw the humour in it all!!

Everyone who participated and committed themselves learned a great deal about the importance of flexibility and ORGANIZATION. We learned how to function as a team, helping each other out and accepting responsibility. The final product will be proof of our efforts.

On behalf of the committee I'd like to thank Mr. Detchon for contributing so much to the photography department. I'd also like to thank the following people who worked so hard all year: Patty Barr; Charles Black; Theo Brinckman; Jane Hawketts; Kristine Johnston; and John Martin. Finally, thank you to Mr. Macknish for being there to keep us all on the right track, and to calm down worried, uptight editors.

Best of luck next year!
Jennifer Winsor

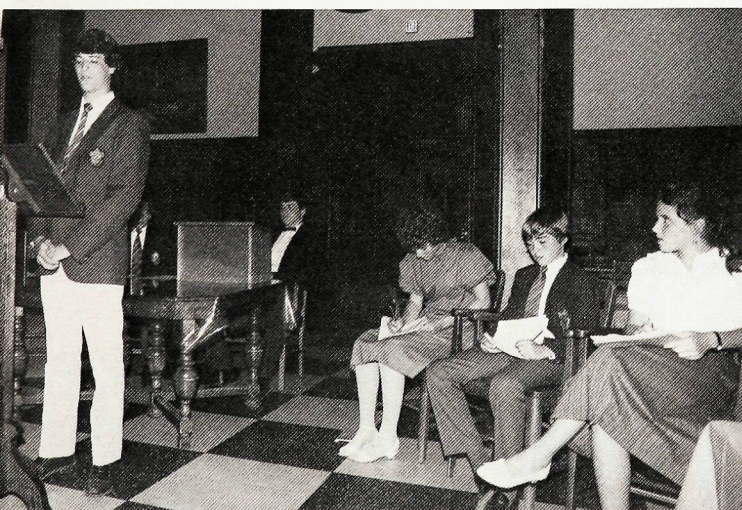

G.T.A.

The Goodmond Timing Association again had a very active year. A total of 49 students covered 301 basketball, hockey and volleyball games. This enthusiastic group of students is the back bone of our very athletic program. The following were awarded weekends for their hard work: Michael McCrory, Paul Huband, John Huggett, Andrew Hall, Marcy Ikeman, Michael Karout, Chris Moseley and Andy Gaudet. New G.T.A. hats were available to all participating members.

AGORA

This year the debating club consisted of a small number of devoted members. Although we weren't able to meet as often as we would have liked, we were still able to have several tournaments and competitions. Our success was very encouraging and led Agora to the idea of holding a "speaker's dinner".

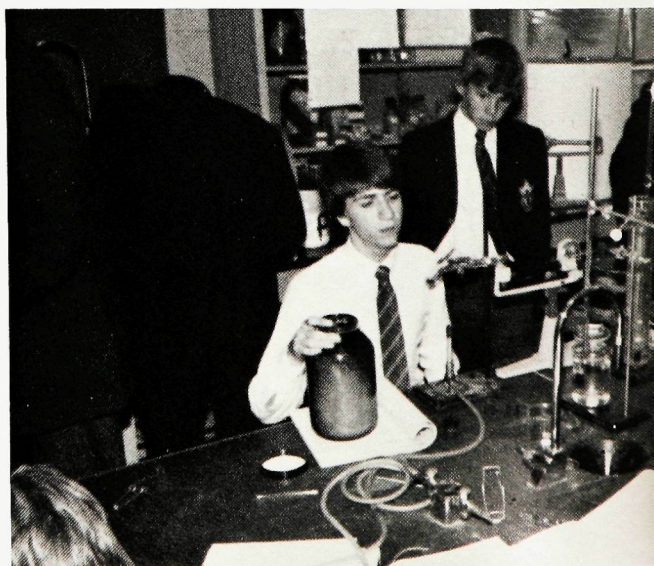

This evening was the highlight of our year and will hopefully lead to greater interest in Agora next year. Our sincere thanks go out to Father Malcolm for all his long hours of helpful work; we look forward to working with him again next year.

THE FIRST ANNUAL OPEN DAY

Sometime last winter, the idea was born of having an Open House the morning of the Cadet Inspection. The idea took hold and Friday May 20 saw over one hundred parents and friends of the school on hand to help us inaugurate what I hope will become an annual event. An Art Gallery blossomed on the third floor, the Computer Room was full of young programmers. The Dining Hall was the scene of a music recital, and the little theater attracted many parents to observe rehearsals in progress. The science labs dazzled visitors with complex demonstrators, the French Department tested our comprehension with a treasure hunt. Classrooms fairly burst with book and poster displays. Students not actively involved in demonstrations acted as guides and sources of information for our visitors, and the general feeling was one of pride in the school and what we are doing here. Certainly the "feedback" from our visitors was most encouraging, and "Open House" looks like it may have become a positive addition to the BCS year. A good time was had by all.

Who would ever believe that a bunch of morons like us could of pulled off such a carnival. What with leader Jill running about hysterically trying to shut us up. While, Hueby, and Fras cracked joke after joke, but unable to humour Jen in the least as she lay spawled, uninterested in her chair. However, Ted and Doug made up as they did all of our worrying and more.

When the words "Hockey Ticket" came up, Bunge was on it in a flash and became our official raffle man. Nina, on the other hand, continually thought little of our ideas and made quite an effort to convince us hers were better. What would we have done without Mark? The only one of us who was sane. Mary missed 99% of the meetings to attend other meetings but together with Alison worked feverishly preparing our scrumptious meal.

David, always eager to do something, and was never given the opportunity. Sue, our other new student with artistic talents, worked away on our Carnival art work(?). Last but definitely not least, Romo and Mr. Fox. Who were honestly the best choice we could have ever possibly made, you two were great!

Here now are Grier South's memories of the passing of this year,
Some fuzzy recollections of the things that happened here,
Bits and pieces to remind us of the people we were near,
While South House marched along.

There are three of us who dwell, within these walls, since second form,
Campbell asking Mr. Nadeau for some cash, was quite the norm,
Stephen changed his room around while Mr. Bill "Shut-up" the dorm,
While South House marched along.

Christian Allard (our House Captain) and Chris Clinton shared 'The Suite'.
Mike McCrory nursed his bruises, ran the tuck shop (quite a treat),
While Dick, he dreamed of Araby, away from snow and sleet,
While South House marched along.

Though Ian tried to turn it off, Jeff played his music still.
Argument was Peter Hallward's, tying flies was Darren's skill.
Arne hung from bedroom windows with his toes upon the sill,
While South House marched along.

Wade and Eric were the ones, the seniors called the 'sassy pair'.
Jon and Michael roomed beside them - it was always noisy there.
Marc was beating up Naran, who could not find his dictionary,
While South House marched along.

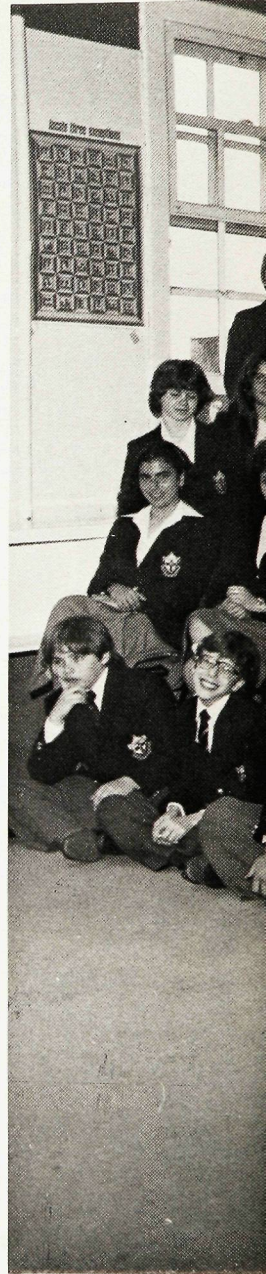

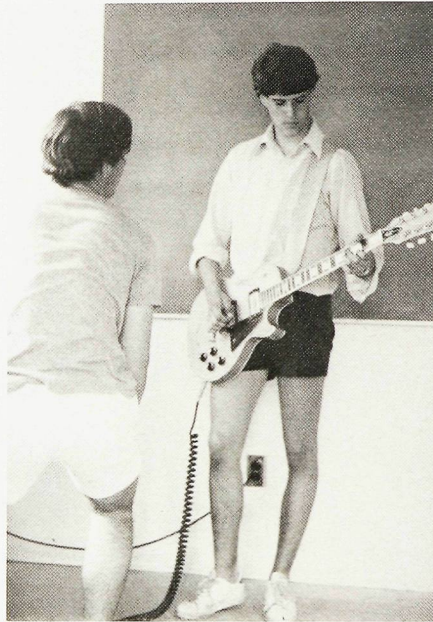

Derek dreamed of older women, which amused Peter Bakos,
Who argued long about his laps - he always lost the toss,
While crushed against the ceiling, James kept talking down at Ross,
While South House marched along.

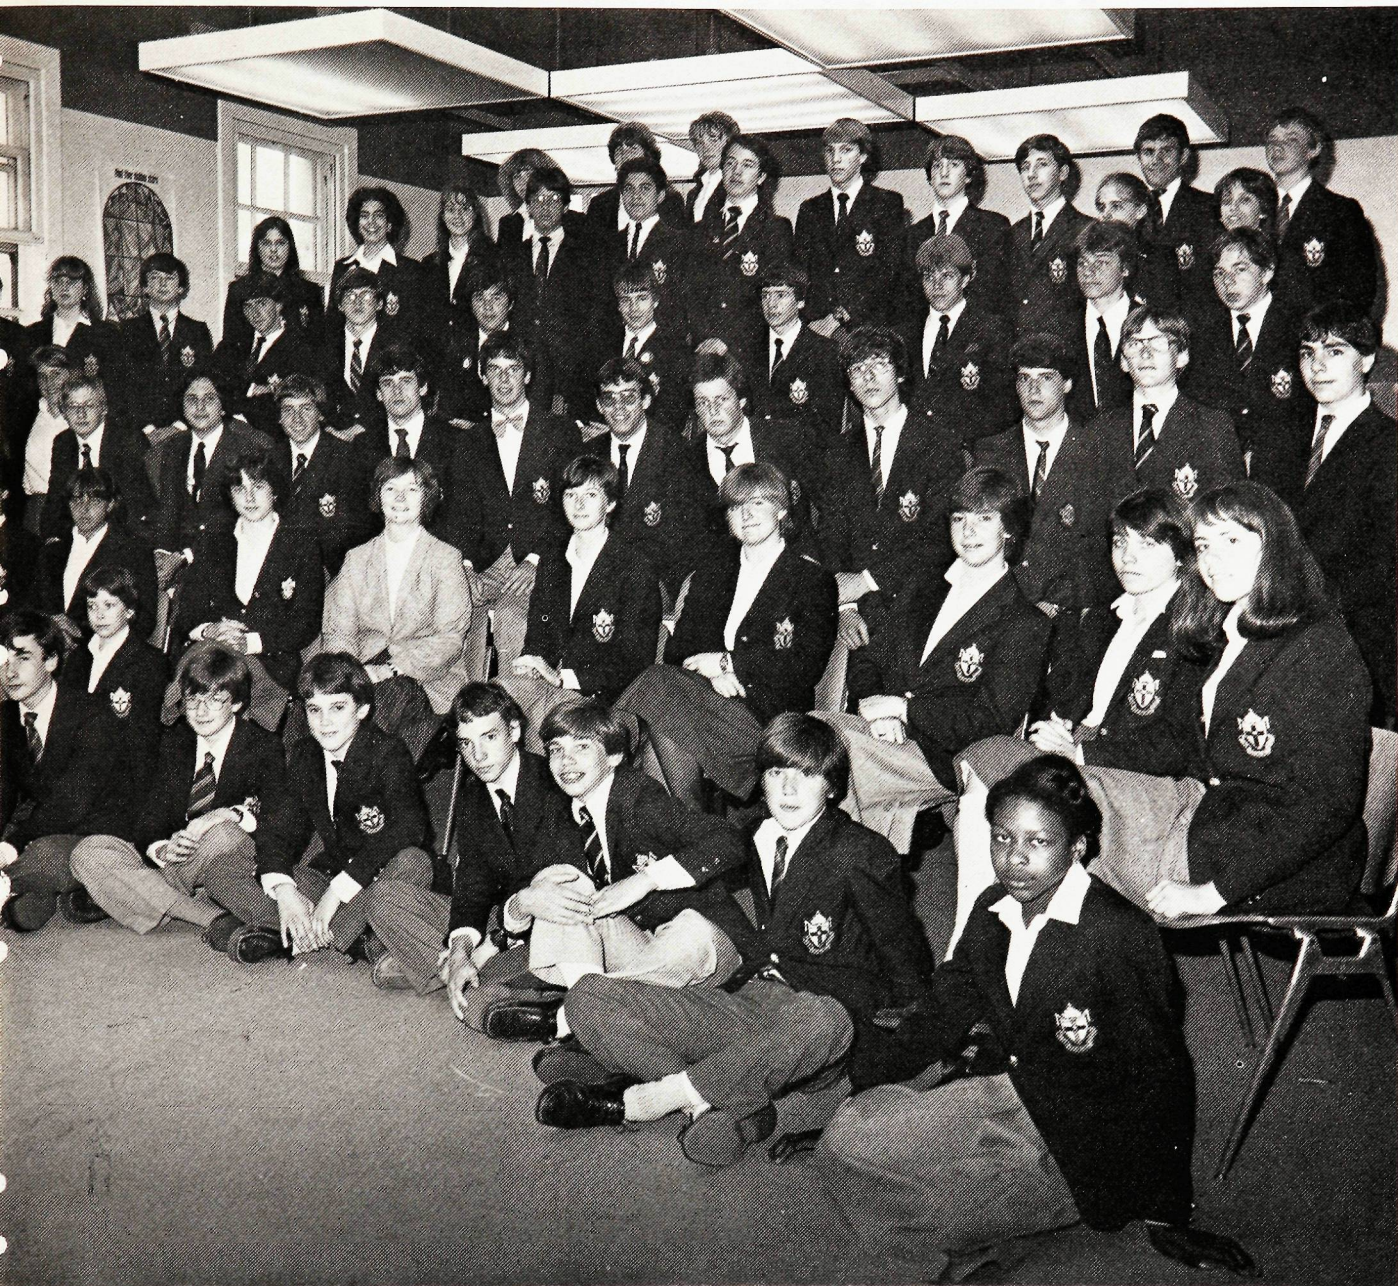

Mr. Nadeau (disher-out of laps), we say good-bye to you,
Our thanks to Mr. Sherriffs and to Dr. Coleman too,
And to Mr. Dutton, Him who baked the cakes and led this crew,
While South House marched along.

ROSS

It's been a good year for Ross House. Not only did we get our own tuck shop, run by the sixth form girls, but also a Common Room where words such as "freaks" and "passion-pit" are commonplace. Those long endless evening vigils on Center Stairs are no longer, as we have our own T.V. The shirts finally arrived, and new ties are on their way. While keeping a high academic standing, we've been active in many other areas of the school, as Cadet leaders, actors, actresses, singers, debaters, musicians, and more. Our percentage of wins is up. The Terry Fox Marathon, three shields in the Cross-Country, a Carnival skit and games were the rewards for group effort. Individual crease prizes and colours went to half of us, those who particularly excelled in their sport. Under the leadership of Jane and Andrea, we have really started to get noticed this year. The other Houses scoff at our Common Room and furnishings, but they still seem to spend a lot of time waiting in our Tuck line. Thanks Mrs. Sacamoto, our new House mistress, for a fantastic year, and to all those leaving us - so long, good-luck, and take care!

Smith House is by no means an idle dwelling. Within the first week of school, many social clubs were formed. Paul started the Greenpeace campaign to save the whales and maybe the seals too. John and the Firechief were always having meetings in the showers, since that is where they seemed to live. One of the most helpful clubs on campus was Smith's very own Happy Home Makers. They were always willing to fix your room, no matter what time in the day or night! The only club to survive from last year was the "J.D. I Love Me" association. Its newest member was Dom, the academy award winning actor for his portrayal as "The Jerk." On the playing field, Smith showed great strength. Zoo bowl was once again the predominant sport, followed closely by BMX snow racing and sun tanning. This year's winners were the returning champions Ross and Set over Mr. J and Mr. Marlin, team leader beat the Tense Gordini crew, (Tense burnt out in the finals) and a twenty-four way tie in suntanning. The spirit of the House was tremendous. The green and white flew high and proud as we once again won the carnival. We attained four first places, including a dramatic and unexpected victory in the Tug-of-war against a very plump McNaughton team. But where would we be now without the Ogre? We'd probably be walking up to school in the rain instead of cruising up in the big, white boat! We thank Mr. Owen very much for putting up with us, but behind every good Housemaster, there are always three great assistants. Mr. Evans was again on hand to make T.V. watching more enjoyable and Mr. Marlin and Mr. Janhson, who were new to the house added many laughs and laps to our lives also. As our doors here close for the last time, we will remember the year as being a complete success. We again thank our Housemaster for helping to make it so.

Staying up late, oh so late!; laughing, being silly. In comes the girls from the North Pole (wearing running shoes); mission sabotaged by laughter. Talking once again, laughing, remembering ...

-The scrambling before the dance to borrow clothes, and the long lines outside K.V.'s door. Frequent cries of "Why didn't you tell me that he was standing there!"; Sounds of Solid Gold drifting out of the Common Room.

-The Seventh Form meetings (during Prep!!). Discussing the newest attack plan to get J & M. Our resident Ross Houser who gave us a "Getaway" and laughing until it hurts.

-Trying to understand Mr. P's jokes; watching our little brothers and sister grow. Super Bob scaling the building to save the damsel in distress. Mrs. P's treats (we'll diet tomorrow!!). Houseparents always there beyond the call of duty.

-40 girls sitting around the television screaming, laughing, or crying according to the mood. Sounds of the Tuck door squeaking open during commercials, mixed with the sound of knitting needles at work.

-We will never forget all of our friendships and times here, but most of all we thank Mrs. Perrier for making this year one of our best ever!!

The poor old Chapman Ghost really only gets a chance to do a decent bit of haunting when the noise of term has died down, the boys have gone for holidays, and the dormitories, corridors, attic spaces, and dank cellar are silent once again. Silent, that is, except for the gentle moan of wind in the ventilator, or the slow creak of expanding floorboards. Silent relatively speaking, for the chickadees still scurry and flit about the lilac hedge outside, and the lazy, droning mudwasps seek ingress along the newly mortised brick walls. But what a difference after the fuss and fever of term time! No self-respecting ghost would show itself for so much as a daydreaming second when the record players are blasting, vacuum cleaner whining, T.V. tyrannizing, and alarm clocks whirring. And think how stressful it would be to the pizza delivery boy to encounter a ghost in the stairwell! No, the wise old spirit really only shows itself when we're all away, and dreamtime settles in round the cluster of house photos with the silent smiling faces of all the noisy boys who ever lived in Chapman House.

The Sparfil Wall System

The insulated wall you'd want between you and rising energy costs.

SPARFIL is a story. A story of innovation successfully meeting the challenge of the energy crisis. The Sparfil Wall System combines continuously insulated Sparfil blocks and a tough, airtight surface bonding cement with one trade installation to form a fully finished, cost competitive wall that provides unsurpassed energy efficiency and at the same time thoroughly meets the demanding performance you expect from wall construction materials.

The Sparfil Wall System has been tested extensively at independent laboratories and field proven in Canada's severe climate since 1976 in hundreds of different project applications. Whether your application is industrial, commercial, recreational, residential or agricultural the Sparfil Wall System offers you unlimited possibilities. Uniquely well suited to meet the challenge of the energy conscious 80's, the Sparfil Wall System is an idea whose time has come.

The Sparfil Wall System is currently manufactured in Ontario and Quebec. Manufacturing licenses are now available worldwide. For further information please contact Sparfil International Inc.
